6. appoint agents to transact any business of the Club on its behalf
7. enter into any other contract it considers necessary or desirable
8. act as trustee and accept and hold real and personal property upon trust, but does not have the power to do any act or thing as a trustee that, if done otherwise than as a trustee, would contravene the rules of the Club

14. Common Seal of the Club

1. The Club must have a common seal on which its corporate name appears in legible characters.
2. The common seal of the Club must not be used without the express authority of the Committee and every use of that common seal must be recorded by the Secretary.
3. The affixing of the common seal of the Club must be witnessed by any two Executive members.
4. The common seal of the Club must be kept in the custody of the Secretary or of such other person as the Committee from time to time decides.

15. Proceedings of Committee

1. Ordinary Meetings

The Committee shall meet at least once a month at such times and places as the President or the Committee may determine.

2. Notice of Meetings

The Secretary shall cause all members of the Committee to receive written or email notice of any meeting of the Committee at least four days before the date of the meeting.

3. Special Meetings

1. The Secretary shall forthwith call a meeting of the Committee upon receiving a written requisition from at least three members thereof; and such special meetings shall be held not later than seven days immediately following the receipt of such requisition.
2. If the Secretary fails to announce a meeting within 3 days, any one of the members signing the requisition may do so and must give the same notice as required of the Secretary.
3. Any business set out in the requisition shall have priority over all other business.

4. Quorum

The quorum for a meeting of the Committee shall be four members of the Committee at least two of which are members of the Executive.

5. Declaration of Pecuniary Interest

A Committee member having any direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a contract, or proposed contract, made by, or in the contemplation of, the Committee (except if that pecuniary interest exists only by virtue of the fact that the member of the Committee is a member of a class of persons for whose benefit the Club is established), must:

1. as soon as he or she becomes aware of that interest, disclose the nature and extent of their interest to the Committee; and
2. not take part in any deliberations or decision of the Committee with respect to that contract.

Sub-rule 5.1 does not apply with respect to a pecuniary interest that exists only by virtue of the fact that the member of the Committee is an employee of the Club.

6. Voting

1. Only members of the Committee are entitled to vote at a meeting of the Committee.
2. Except where stated otherwise in the Constitution, a motion shall be passed if a majority of those present and eligible to vote cast their vote in favour of the motion.

7. Rules of Debate

Any member of the Committee may demand at any meeting of the Committee that the meeting be conducted in accordance with the 12th Edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with this Constitution or policy made thereunder.

8. Business via Circular

The Committee may conduct business via circular in the case of urgent business that cannot reasonably be delayed until the next possible time a Committee or General Meeting can be held.

9. Business via Circular Expires at the Next Meeting

All resolutions from business conducted via circular shall expire at the next Committee or General Meeting unless they are ratified.

10. Business via Circular to be made Public

All business conducted via circular must be made available in the minutes of the next General or Committee Meeting, with the results of any votes.

16. Duties of Committee Members

1. President

In addition to any other provisions set out elsewhere in this Constitution, or any regulation or policy made thereunder, it shall be the duty of the President to:

1. conduct the relations of the Club with other organisations and to the general public subject to the authority of the Committee;
2. co-ordinate and supervise the work of the Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and other officers of the Club subject to the authority of the Committee;
3. generally carry out the policy of the Club; and
4. generally carry out the instructions and decisions of the Committee.

2. Vice-President

In addition to any other provisions set out elsewhere in this Constitution, or any regulation or policy made thereunder, it shall be the duty of the Vice-President to:

1. assist in the President's duties;
2. carry out Presidential duties during the absence of the President, during which time the Vice-President shall be deemed to be the President; and
3. generally carry out the instructions of the Committee.

3. Secretary

In addition to any other provisions set out elsewhere in this Constitution, or any regulation or policy made thereunder, it shall be the duty of the Secretary to:

1. maintain an up to date register of the Member of the Club and the information required by the Act and, upon the request of a Member of the Club, make the register available for the inspection of the Member;
 1. An Member may make a copy of or take an extract from the register but shall have no right to remove the register for that purpose.
2. carry out the administrative work of the Club for which the Committee does not appoint or elect an officer;
3. record the proceedings of all General Meetings and meetings of the Committee and make these minutes available in an easily accessible portion of the Club online presence;
4. conduct and keep copies of all correspondence to the Club;
5. generally carry out the instructions and decisions of the Committee relating to the administration of the Club;
6. ensure that an accurate copy of the Club constitution is maintained in an easily accessible portion of the Club online presence; and
7. unless resolved otherwise at a General Meeting, have custody of all books, documents, records and registers of the Club, other than those required to be kept and maintained by, or in the custody of, the Treasurer.

4. Treasurer

In addition to any other provisions set out elsewhere in this Constitution, or any regulation or policy made thereunder, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to:

1. be responsible for the receipt of all moneys paid to or received by, or by him or her on behalf of, the Club and issue receipts for those moneys in the name of the Club;
2. keep accounting records as correctly record and explain the financial transactions and financial position of the Club, in such a manner that permits convenient and proper auditing;
3. render an account at each meeting of the Committee of all receipts and payments since the previous meeting;
4. render an account of the petty cash at each meeting of the Committee;
5. furnish the Committee with such other accounts and information relating to the finances of the Club as the Committee may require;
6. present a current financial statement showing all receipts and payments at each Ordinary General Meeting and by motion of Committee, an auditor's report at the Annual General Meeting;
7. unless resolved otherwise at a general meeting, have custody of all securities, books and documents of a financial nature and accounting records of the Club; and
8. generally carry out the instructions of the Committee relating to the property and finances of the Club.

5. Ordinary Committee Members

In addition to any other provisions set out in this Constitution, or in any regulation or policy made thereunder, it shall be the duty of the Ordinary Committee Members to:

1. assist the other Committee Members in the executions of their duties; and
2. bear any responsibilities that the Committee shall from time to time decide.

6. First Year Representative

In addition to any other provisions set out in this Constitution, or in any regulation or policy made thereunder, it shall be the duty of the First Year Representative to:

1. represent the interests of Ordinary Members of the Club who are in first year University or who have not previously been Ordinary Members of the Club;
2. assist the other Committee Members in the executions of their duties, especially in the case were they relate to new Ordinary Members; and
3. bear any responsibilities that the Committee shall from time to time decide.

17. Vacancies

1. Absence

The Committee shall declare vacant the position of any member of the Committee if that member has been absent from two consecutive meetings of the Committee without giving a satisfactory explanation for that absence.

2. Election

If any position on the Committee becomes vacant then the Committee shall call a General Meeting for the election of a member to that position within four weeks of that position becoming vacant. If the vacant position is an executive role, the committee may choose to elect a member of the committee to temporarily fill that role until the General Meeting is held.

18. General Meetings

1. Ordinary General Meetings

There shall be at least one General Meeting in each year, namely the Annual General Meeting, and any Ordinary General Meetings held as the Committee shall determine. The annual general meeting must be held in every calendar year within 4 months after the end of the Club's financial year or such longer period as may in a particular case be allowed by the Commissioner, except for the first annual general meeting which may be held at any time within 18 months after incorporation.

2. Notice of Meeting

The Secretary shall make all reasonable attempts to notify all Members using at least a notice on the club notice-board for ten days preceding the meeting and an email sent to all addresses on the membership register at least ten days before the date of the meeting.

3. Special General Meeting

The Committee may at any time, without the need for a Committee meeting, call a Special General Meeting of the Club by the written agreement of at least four Committee members, at least one of whom is a member of the Executive. This meeting must be notified by the Secretary as with all other General Meetings, or if the Secretary has resigned or is unavailable by any member of the Committee with the same notice requirements of the Secretary.

4. General Meeting Called by Ordinary Members

1. The Secretary shall forthwith call a Special General Meeting upon receiving a written requisition from the lower of ten percent of the total membership or ten Ordinary Members of the Club, and such meetings shall be held with appropriate notice requirement and not later than 17 days immediately following the receipt of such requisition.
2. If the Secretary fails to announce a meeting within 7 days any one of the members signing the requisition may do so and must make all reasonable attempts to give the same notice as required of the Secretary.
3. Any business set out in the requisition shall have priority over all other business.

5. Powers of a General Meeting

A General Meeting may exercise the same powers as the Committee except for those powers exclusively reserved for the Committee under this Constitution.

6. Agenda

The Secretary shall post the agenda for any General Meeting on the notice-boards alongside the notice of meeting at least four days before the date of the meeting.

7. Notice of Motion

At least four days before the meeting, topics intended to be discussed at the meeting shall be posted on the notice-board alongside the notice of meeting.

8. Quorum

The quorum of a General Meeting shall be fifteen Ordinary Members present in person.

9. Rules of Debate

Any member may demand that any General Meeting be conducted in accordance with the 12th edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with this Constitution or policy made thereunder.

10. Chair

The President shall have the right to take the chair at any General meeting or meetings of the Committee. If the President is absent or does not wish to exercise their right at any meeting, that meeting shall elect its own Chair.

11. Voting

1. Except where stated otherwise in the constitution, all Ordinary Members of the Club are entitled to vote at a General Meeting.
2. Except where stated otherwise in the constitution, a motion shall be passed if a majority of those present and eligible to vote cast their vote in favour of the motion.
3. Postal voting or proxy voting is not permitted.

12. Procedure for Motions

1. Once a motion is tabled, the motion shall be open to general discussion and amendments.
2. After general discussion, a call for votes will be made by the Chair of the meeting.
3. Any Ordinary Member at the meeting may call for the votes to be by secret ballot.

19. Delegates

The Committee shall have the power, after its re-constitution, to appoint from amongst its members a Delegate and Deputy-Delegate to any body with which it may choose to affiliate.

20. Removal From Office

1. The Committee may request any member of the Committee, member of any sub-committee, officer, representative or delegate of the Club to resign from that position if a person has failed to perform satisfactorily the normal duties of the position.
2. The person concerned shall be informed of this request at least seven days before a meeting of the Committee where that person may speak on their own behalf.
3. Any such request to resign shall require such a motion which will only be passed if a two-thirds majority of those voting have voted in favour of the motion. The request to resign shall be delivered in writing to the person concerned forthwith.
4. If a person has not resigned within seven days of the request the Committee may declare that position vacant.
5. Any person who has had their former position declared vacant shall have the right to appeal to a General Meeting for their reinstatement.

21. Cancellation of Membership

1. The Club may cancel the Membership of the Club, should that Member have acted in a manner contrary to the best interests of the Club.
2. A two-thirds majority of a committee meeting may cancel an Membership by passing a motion to that effect.

3. The cancellation of Membership shall be delivered in writing to the person concerned forthwith.
4. Any person who has their Membership cancelled shall have the right to appeal to a General Meeting for the reinstatement of their Membership, except where that person is a first-time Member and has been an Member for less than one month or has had their Membership cancelled by Committee more than once.
5. A person who has had their Membership cancelled may not reapply for an Membership for the period of one year.

22. Dispute Resolution

1. The parties to a dispute must attempt to resolve the dispute between themselves within 14 days after the dispute has come to the attention of each party.
2. If the parties to a dispute are unable to resolve the dispute between themselves within the time required by sub-rule 1, any party to the dispute may start the dispute resolution by giving written notice to the secretary of-
 - (a) the parties to the dispute; and
 - (b) the matters that are the subject of the dispute.
3. Within 28 days after the secretary is given the notice, a committee meeting must be convened to consider and determine the dispute.
4. The secretary must give each party to the dispute written notice of the committee meeting at which the dispute is to be considered and determined at least 7 days before the meeting is held.
5. The notice given to each party to the dispute must state-
 - (a) when and where the committee meeting is to be held; and
 - (b) that the party, or the party's representative, may attend the meeting and will be given a reasonable opportunity to make written and oral submissions to the committee about the dispute.
6. If the dispute is between one or more Members and the Club, the Committee must not determine the dispute.
7. At the committee meeting at which a dispute is to be considered and determined, the Committee must-
 - (a) give each party to the dispute, or the party's representative, a reasonable opportunity to make written and oral submissions to the committee about the dispute; and
 - (b) give due consideration to any submissions made; and
 - (c) determine the dispute.
8. The Committee must give each party to the dispute written notice of the Committee's determination, and the reasons for the determination, within 7 days after the committee meeting at which the determination is made.

23. Mediation

1. If the dispute is between one or more Members and the Club, the Chair of Guild Council shall mediate the dispute, henceforth known as the mediator.
2. In the event that the Chair of Guild Council is unable to perform the role of the mediator, a mediator shall be elected by the Guild Council from its constituent members.
3. The mediator may be a Member or former Member of the Club but must not-
 - (a) have a personal interest in the matter that is the subject of the mediation; or

- (b) be biased in favour of or against any party to the mediation.
- 4. The parties to the mediation must attempt in good faith to settle the matter that is the subject of the mediation.
- 5. Each party to the mediation must give the mediator a written statement of the issues that need to be considered at the mediation at least 5 days before the mediation takes place.
- 6. In conducting the mediation, the mediator must-
 - (a) give each party to the mediation every opportunity to be heard; and
 - (b) allow each party to the mediation to give due consideration to any written statement given by another party; and
 - (c) ensure that natural justice is given to the parties to the mediation throughout the mediation process.
- 7. The mediator must give each party to the dispute written notice of the mediator's determination and the reasons for the determination within 7 days after the mediation at which the determination is made.
- 8. The mediator cannot settle disputes other than the matter brought to them.
- 9. If the mediator releases information about the dispute, it must only be released in good faith.

24. Finance

- 1. All money due and payable to the Club shall be received by the Treasurer who shall lodge it without undue delay in the account of the Club.
- 2. Except as otherwise provided for in the Constitution, or in a policy, any two of the Executive shall be empowered jointly to sign cheques and forms of authority for the withdrawal of any money standing in the credit of the Club in the account of the Club.
- 3. The Committee may by a two-thirds majority elect a single delegate from the Committee who may sign in lieu of one of the required Executive signatures on a cheque.
- 4. No payment shall be made on behalf of or in the name of the Club unless it has been authorised by the Committee.
- 5. The Committee may, outside a Committee meeting, agree to a payment or purchase by written consent of five Committee members including at least two Executive members of the Committee. Such written consent must be tabled and minuted at the next meeting of the Committee.
- 6. A payment to a Member out of the funds of the Club is authorised subject to subrule 4 if it is -
 - 1. the payment in good faith to the Member as reasonable remuneration for any services provided to the Club, or for goods supplied to the Club, in the ordinary course of business; or
 - 2. the reimbursement of reasonable expenses properly incurred by the member on behalf of the Club.

25. Policy

- 1. The Club in General Meeting may make policy on any matter relating to the conduct of the affairs of the Club provided that policy is not inconsistent with or repugnant to this Constitution or the Act.
- 2. Creation, modification, or removal of policy shall require written notice and shall only be passed by special resolution at a General Meeting.
- 3. The policy of the Club shall form an appendix to this Constitution and be made available with it.

26. Interpretation of the Constitution

The Committee shall be the sole authority for interpreting the meaning of any of the provisions contained in this Constitution or in any regulation of the Club policy made thereunder.

27. Amendments to the Constitution

1. The Club in a General Meeting may amend this Constitution.
2. Any motion proposing to amend this Constitution shall require a written notice of motion and any such motion shall only be passed by special resolution.
3. Within one month of the passing of a special resolution altering its Constitution, or such further time as the Commissioner may in a particular case allow (on written application by the Club), the Club must lodge with the Commissioner notice of the special resolution setting out particulars of the alteration together with a certificate given by a member of the Committee certifying that the resolution was duly passed as a special resolution and that the Constitution of the Club as so altered conforms to the requirements of the Act.
4. An alteration of the Constitution of the Club does not take effect until sub-rule 25.3 is complied with.

28. Interim Measures

The Executive shall have the power to suspend such provisions of this Constitution until the 15th April, 1975 as may be expedient to the formation of a Club.

29. Commercial Exploitation

No member of the Club shall use any of the resources of the Club for direct financial gain.

30. Inspection of Constitution, records, etc.

1. The Secretary shall make available to any member of the public a copy of this Constitution for perusal.
2. A member may at any reasonable time inspect without charge the books, documents, records and securities of the Club.

31. Dissolution

If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Club there remains after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities any property whatsoever, the same must not be paid to or distributed among the members, or former members. The surplus property must be given or transferred to another association incorporated under the Act which has similar objects and which is not carried out for the purposes of profit or gain to its individual members, and which association shall be determined by resolution of the members.
