12. MOTIONS ON NOTICE (OPERATIONS)

13.0 MOTIONS WITHOUT NOTICE (OPERATIONS)

14.0 MOTIONS ON NOTICE (REPRESENTATION)

14.1 The 111th Guild Council:

14.1.1 Notes improvements to SLT made in 2023-2024 to further contextualise the prevalence of SASH to Club executives,

14.1.2 Notes the expansion of SLT to cover bystander training and responding to disclosures more deeply,

- 14.1.3 Notes the ongoing improvement of the Safe Clubs and Events Officer role within Club executives, to address the prevalence of SASH in club spaces as reported by the NSSS,
- 14.1.4 Reaffirms the importance of reviewing the prevalence of SASH in the clubs space, and the commitment to continually improving the Guild's response to SASH.

Moved: India Creed
Seconded: Max Vinning

14.2 The 111th Guild Council:

- 14.2.1 Criticises the recent changes to the Assessing Fitness to Drive guidelines that govern driving fitness which now list autism spectrum disorder (ASD), as a condition that "should be assessed individually" as well as the preexisting guidelines which require conditions such as ADHD to be disclosed,
- 14.2.2 Notes that The Assessing Fitness to Drive 2020-21 review found there was not enough evidence to determine the motor vehicle crash risk associated with ASD as reported by the ABC,
- 14.2.3 Notes the fact that these changes will further existing stigma against an ASD diagnosis within Australian society as well as further discourage individuals from seeking a professional diagnosis,
- 14.2.4 Notes the fact that the high fines facing people who fail to properly declare health conditions may put extra pressure on disabled students as a group that typically faces additional systemic financial barriers compared to the general population,
- 14.2.5 Commits to supporting students at the university who may be impacted by these changes by encouraging them to make use of services available on campus such as Student Assist as well as the medical care offered in the medical centre on campus which is offered at a reduced cost.

Moved: Olivia Stronach
Seconded: Matthew Harris

14.3 The 111th Guild Council:

- 14.3.1 Notes that Easy English is a clear and concise style of writing which helps people who have difficulty reading and understanding English,
- 14.3.2 Notes that Easy English increases meaningful access to written information in a way that people can read and understand,
- 14.3.3 Encourages the University of Western Australia and the University of Western Australia Student Guild to publish Easy English versions of reports and other significant written documents to increase accessibility for students and staff,
- 14.3.4 Encourages the University of Western Australia and the University of Western Australia Student Guild to prioritise considering accessibility in other published materials such as social media graphics and make use of features such as captioning where possible.

Moved: Olivia Stronach
Seconded: India Creed

14.4 The 111th Guild Council:

- 14.4.1 Acknowledges upcoming International Women's Day on March 8th, a historic day of protests and strikes against women's oppression.

- 14.4.2 Acknowledges the persistent inequities faced by women, particularly in regard to reproductive rights, where challenges surrounding abortion access remain prevalent,
- 14.4.3 Commits to continuing support for the campaign for free and accessible abortion in WA, particularly on this historic day of action,
- 14.4.4 Demands that the Cook Government take immediate action to increase healthcare funding for women's healthcare, particularly to make abortions more accessible.

Moved by: Paige Brandwood
Seconded by: Indi Creed

14.5 The 111th Guild Council:

- 14.5.1 Notes that the 26th January is a day that causes distress and discomfort to many people in the First Nations community.
- 14.5.2 Notes the 26th is a day that is not celebrated by many people in the Australian community.
- 14.5.3 Notes and respects that "Australia Day" is also known as "Invasion Day" or "Survival Day" by many in the Australian particularly First Nations community.
- 14.5.4 Notes that most other University Guilds in WA have elected First Nations representatives while UWA does not.
- 14.5.5 Instructs the UWA Guild to release a media post acknowledging the difficulties many First Nations people face on this day.

Moved: Matthew Harris
Seconded: Amira Nunn

14.6 The 111th Guild Council:

- 14.6.1 Acknowledges the worsening housing crisis around Australia and recognises that students are one of the most harshly affected due to said crisis. In particular for:
 - a. Low income students
 - b. International students
 - c. Regional students
 - d. Any students with extenuating socio-economic restrictions to their current or future studies.
- 14.6.2 Acknowledges the importance of all universities, as well as student bodies, to have dedicated welfare services which provide a holistic view of welfare. These welfare services are inclusive but not limited to; mental health support, physical health support, housing assistance, crisis assistance and any other short term welfare assistance service.
- 14.6.3 Pushes for the protection and expansion of student services to create achievable policies to tackle today's modern welfare issues. These policies are inclusive of but not limited to:
 - a. Clinical psychiatrists on campus
 - b. GPs on campus
 - c. Housing advisors on campus
 - d. Financial advisors on campus
 - e. Free financial training for all students.
 - f. Accessible academic crisis support including special consideration.
