12. MOTIONS WITHOUT NOTICE (OPERATIONS)

13. MOTIONS ON NOTICE (REPRESENTATION)

13.1 The 113th Guild Council:

- 13.1.1 Supports the National Day of Action against Pauline Hanson which is organised by the National Union of Students
- 13.1.2 Notes that recently Pauline Hanson met and was interviewed by Tommy Robinson, a notorious British fascist who has incited pogroms and attacks against migrants and Muslims; in which she blames the end of the White Australia policy for 'migration issues' in Australia, and states that 'mass Islamic migration' will lead to the decline of Australia.
- 13.1.3 Will print 1000 leaflets and 200 posters for advertising the National Day of Action, and will publicise it around Guild Channels, including on the digital screens around the University.

Moved: Tom Pearce

Seconded: Rama Sugiartha

14. MOTION WITHOUT NOTICE (REPRESENTATION)

14.1 The 113th Guild Council:

- 14.1.1 Notes with grave concern the widespread systemic irregularities, paper leaks, and allegations of corruption surrounding the National Eligibility Entrance Test (NEET) in India, affecting millions of young people and tertiary-bound students.
- 14.1.2 Condemns the excessive use of police force, violent baton charges (lathi-charges), tear gas, and mass detentions deployed by authorities against students, youth activists, and medical personnel peacefully exercising their democratic right to protest.
- 14.1.3 Recognises the severe emotional, mental, and academic distress experienced by UWA's international and South Asian diaspora students who are watching their peers and families face state violence for demanding educational integrity.
- 14.1.4 Reaffirms the UWA Student Guild's firm belief that freedom of peaceful assembly, freedom of speech, and equal access to fair education are fundamental human rights that must be defended globally.
- 14.1.5 Stands in solidarity with student unions and young people in India campaigning for systemic educational reform, transparency, and justice.
- 14.1.6 Releases a public statement on Guild social media channels standing in solidarity with the affected students and reaffirming the Guild's commitment to academic integrity and democratic rights.

Moved: Reana Bose

Seconded: Ojaswi Shrestha
