14. MOTIONS ON NOTICE (REPRESENTATION)

14.1 The 113th Guild Council:

14.1.1 Supports the National Day of Action against Pauline Hanson which is organised by the National Union of Students

14.1.2 Notes that recently Pauline Hanson met and was interviewed by Tommy Robinson, a notorious British extremist and islamophobic activist who has incited pogroms and attacks against migrants and Muslims; in which she blames the end of the White Australia policy for 'migration issues' in Australia, and states that 'mass Islamic migration' will lead to the decline of Australia.

14.1.3 Will cross promote the NUS' National day of Action around Guild Channels subject to the Guild President's approval of materials to be promoted.

Moved: Tom Pearce

Seconded: Rama Sugiarta

15. MOTION WITHOUT NOTICE (REPRESENTATION)

15.1 The 113th Guild Council:

15.1.1 Notes with grave concern the widespread systemic irregularities, paper leaks, and allegations of corruption surrounding the National Eligibility Entrance Test (NEET) in India, affecting millions of young people and tertiary-bound students.

15.1.2 Condemns the excessive use of police force, violent baton charges (lathi-charges), tear gas, and mass detentions deployed by authorities against students, youth activists, and medical personnel peacefully exercising their democratic right to protest.

15.1.3 Recognises the severe emotional, mental, and academic distress experienced by UWA's international and South Asian diaspora students who are watching their peers and families face state violence for demanding educational integrity.

15.1.4 Reaffirms the UWA Student Guild's firm belief that freedom of peaceful assembly, freedom of speech, and equal access to fair education are fundamental human rights that must be defended globally.

15.1.5 Stands in solidarity with student unions and young people in India campaigning for systemic educational reform, transparency, and justice.

15.1.6 Recognises that India is currently functioning as a fascist state, with little democratic rights, no freedom of expression, and a history of extreme violence, which protestors have bravely opposed.

15.1.7 Releases a public statement on Guild social media channels standing in solidarity with the affected students and reaffirming the Guild's commitment to academic integrity and democratic rights.

Moved: Reana Bose
