- 12.2 The 105th Guild Council
 - a) Recognises the need for internships in Australia for students to gain workplace experience.
 - b) Believes that where appropriate, students should be paid for the work that they do in internships.
 - c) Opposes 'for pay' internships where students must pay to undertake internships.
 - d) Will not promote 'for-pay' internships through Guild channelsMoved: Conrad Hogg; Seconded: Peter Watson.

- 12.3 The UWA Student Guild acknowledges:
 - a) Earlier this year, Malcolm Turnbull announced that the Coalition Government will give $3.8 billion in loans to weapons manufacturing exporters. Australia aims to be in the top 10 weapons exporters worldwide. This investment is geared towards further militarising Australia and increasing its ability to spread human destruction abroad.
 - b) Universities across Australia have facilitated this process through military investment and research. Human betterment and creativity and should be prioritised in higher education not destruction and war.
