PROJECT UPDATE

Hands Off Our Education

We are now focusing on building for the August 28 National Day of Action against the fee hikes. We are holding an open EAN meeting on Monday 3 August to discuss the impacts of the hikes on students. This will feature panellists from the Guild and the NTEU. We will close the meeting by discussing organising action in the lead up to the NDA.

Maintain the Rate

The Government recently announced changes to JobKeeper and JobSeeker which will see these payments fall below the poverty line. This will have an enormous impact on students, many of whom have lost their casual jobs in the past 6 months. I look forward to working with the Welfare Department and the NUS on the Maintain the Rate campaign.

UWA Action Plan

Progress has been made on the action plan with the establishment of the UWA Sustainability committee. I have appointed Will Norrish, Environment Officer, as my nominee to this committee. Additionally, I have begun work on the joint academic integrity campaign.

Transcript recognition for student leaders

As noted previously, the proposal has been accepted by Student Experience Committee. I have been working with Antonia Taylor to organise documentation and policy. I will be meeting with Tim Martin in the next week to finalise this. We will then open applications to clubs, societies and colleges.

Special Consideration

Following an Education Committee meeting, the 2 day self-declared special consideration has been put on ice. I will be meeting with the Chair of Academic Board and ADLTs in the coming week to pave a way forward.

Parking

I can confirm that students not returning in semester 2 can receive full refunds of their semester 1 parking permits.

Textbooks

I have been working with the Library to run comms for students on where to access their textbooks. As part of this I have secured a 15% discount to Perlego, the “Spotify for textbooks”. Perlego is an online platform through which students have access to hundreds of non-fiction titles for a monthly fee.

Lighting

I received confirmation at the Safer Communities Working Group this month that the parts to upgrade lighting on campus are on their way. Estimated completion date is mid to late November.

Cameron Hall elevator

I have been in touch with Campus Management. The feasibility study is progressing and has an estimated delivery date of 31st August 2020.

SPARK Volunteering

Earlier this month, I was approached by the Student Life team and some academics to look at launching the SPARK initiative at UWA. This is an app-based volunteering platform connecting students with the elderly to participate in low-barrier volunteering projects, such as picking up groceries or walking dogs. This can be done as a relationship of mutual benefit – for example, in some cases, elderly participants made homecooked meals or helped international students fill out forms in exchange for help at their homes. We will be hosting a codesign session early in semester one.

Guild Precinct

I have been working with Guild Management to develop a plan for the empty shells in the Guild precinct. I am interested to hear any ideas student reps have about how to fill these shells.

Tenancy campaign

Earlier this month, I wrote to Minister Tinley regarding tenancy provisions for students as the protections brought in during COVID-19 are due to be removed. I am yet to hear back from his office. I look forward to seeing the Welfare Department implement this campaign.

Health Services Review

Earlier this month, I attended the first Health Services Review ideation focusing on how we can improve medical and counselling services on campus. I look forward to working with Student Life to implement

PROJECT UPDATE

LBI

There have been some unforeseen setbacks in this project as a number of key members have found their availabilities suddenly shifting. In response, the publication of a policy journal has been set as a medium-term objective, with a launch event and online blog being seen as more imminently attainable.

MASA Revival

One of my key projects this semester will be to revive MASA as it has basically lapsed, with minimal engagement. I have been communicating with a core group of mature age students about the best ways to engage given the current context.

Waste Reduction Platform

UWA Student Experience Committee has been investigating ways they can minimise their waste and repurpose items for student use. I have put forward the model utilised by the University of Queensland, however, they found our needs to be different to that of the UQ campus and as such are pursuing other means. A potential mechanism could be the integration of these goods into the Guild's existing LibCal system.

Strategic Planning for Clubs and Faculty Societies

At this stage, I am reworking the strategic planning scaffold in light of the change in circumstances for a lot of clubs on campus. As a result, the model has regressed to draft stage. After the draft is complete the next steps will be meeting with 180DC exec about adapting their service to deliver something like this, and Guild Exec about the potential of overlap with this and the Sponsorship Working Group.

Cultural Club Expanded Representation

With the return to campus, this project is also being revived. Community building and planning for the future are especially important at these times. We will continue to support these clubs in mapping out their long-term objectives and supporting their longevity. Next steps include sitdowns with club executives to discuss the state of their clubs post-isolation and plan for the future.

Club Spotlight Series

This project sees some overlap with the Cultural Club Expansion project. At this stage I am in the process of combing through the calendar to find culturally significant dates and or festivals which could provide good opportunities to promote certain clubs on campus, in addition to relevant Guild Theme Weeks. Once the calendar is complete, the next steps will be sitting down with Guild Marketing to plan out the aesthetic of the spotlights.

EZONE Club Engagement

With EZONE now nearing total completion, I am reopening my investigation into club spaces in the building. Next steps include meeting with the building manager and review available short-term and long-term club spaces.

ACHIEVEMENTS TO DATE

- Started an independent, student-run policy think tank
- Relaunched Wellbeing Volunteer Program
- Created a Faculty Society Directory to collate the information of key faculty society executive portfolios, Guild Staff and Representatives and Faculty to facilitate meaningful collaboration
- Revamping Guild Survival Guide for 2020
- Working with ALVA and Blackstone to prevent a reduction in service hours at EDFAA and Beasley Law Library
- Indigenous Cultural Awareness Training modules for SLT
- Implementing Office Bearer Consultation Hours

SUMMARY

Hi all,

I hope that you have enjoyed your break, and are recharged for our final semester on Guild Council. While Semester 2 will be different to normal, it is an exciting opportunity to return a more normal campus culture. We also have the unique opportunity to work on meaningful projects that are timely and impactful.

It has been a privilege over the past semester to work with Bre and the Guild Management to plan new Guild Innovation offerings for students, and I am excited to see some of that launch this semester. While this space is always changing, with many things in the works, I hope that the below report can help give you a clearer picture of what we've been doing.

As always, I encourage anyone to reach out to me if you have any questions, concerns, or even a book recommendation.

Best,

Luke
General Secretary

PROJECT UPDATE

COVID-19 Response (Commercial)

With the COVID-19 Restrictions in Western Australia beginning to ease, we are able to start opening our outlets. Most recently, the Tavern has been able to open with increased capacity and return to the regular menu. As we open campus, Quobba Gnarning, Hackett, Catalyst, and the Tavern are now open. Other cafes are opening as they become safe and able to do so.

Venture: Student Innovation Centre

The Innovation Centre has officially completed its first round of recruitment for the student Executive, and has successfully digitally launched. Venture now has a social media presence and is continuing to attract new and engaged students. Venture is co-hosting IQ Academy beginning early this semester, and is preparing for the launch of its new Innovation Grants Programs (in the stakeholder engagement and consultation phase). There are a series of events, workshops, and club-outreach activities currently planned.

Tavern Loyalty System

We are currently investigating whether it is possible to introduce a “loyalty points” system to the Tavern. While it looks unlikely to open at the start of Semester, we are hoping that Task provides us with sufficient details to investigate shortly.

Extending Hackett Opening Hours (Trial)

Hackett is an ideal study spot, and we are currently investigating the costs associated with extending opening hours into the evenings. This will likely take the form of a short trial period in semester two, if funding can be allocated. As an update from last council, this will now likely take place closer to the end of Semester around exam study time, with a particular emphasis on engaging College students.

Midyear Budget Review

The Midyear Budget Review has been distributed to Council for engagement and suggestions, and has now been put up for approval. I would like to thank the incredible work that Mutya and the Finance team have done on this.

$4.50 and under $5 meals

This has been an important project for me since we started, trying to find new ways cater to students with diverse dietary requirements nutritiously and on a budget. I have been able to work with the Cafés manager to devise a new and renewed list of $4.50 and under $5 meal options on campus, which we have begun to roll out to the cafes. The full menu will be available in Semester 2 as student traffic picks up, and will be published as posters around campus.

Stationery at Quobba

Student consultation suggests that there is a strong demand for students to have more access to grab-and-go stationery on campus. We have worked with a wholesale provider to begin selling stationery products at Quobba Gnarning for students.

Sponsorship Working Group

The Sponsorship Working Group has met and arranged for a final round of consultation. This consists of focus questions being distributed through Ed Council and a number of club questions to be distributed via survey. Once this is done, a final recommendation will be drafted up and distributed to Council for approval.

Live Data Dashboard

This year we are putting together a new data dashboard for the Guild website, so that students have Guild related data at their fingertips. This is currently being prototyped and should be ready for launch at some point in early semester 2. We have currently sourced about 80% of the data, and the project is well underway

PROJECT UPDATE

NUS Disabilities

Newly elected NUS Disabilities Officer Kirra Jackson reached out to our Department and other disability officers around Australia. We have been talking with them and had a meeting with other disability officers around Australia. We are currently looking at bring a disability voice to the anti-cuts campaign and fighting for a more accessible university alongside opposing cuts. We're looking forward to future meetings and potentially a wider meeting/conference for student's with disabilities to feed into. Mike was also fortunate enough to attend the workshop run by Kirra during NUS Ed-Con this year.

Student Leadership Training

Mike presented the Inclusive Events training session as part of the Events Team's Student Leadership Training. This is an ongoing collaboration between Events, Access, and Equity and Diversity. The session goes over things to consider when planning events to ensure they are inclusive and accessible to students from different demographics and/or equity groups. The session was well received and had good interaction with those attending asking questions and giving thoughtful responses to questions posed to them.

Health Services Review

Access, alongside Bre and Connor, attended a workshop with the university to discuss the recommendations of the Health Services Review. This session was run by the ideation hub. Guild representatives used this opportunity to raise issues student's have faced in the current model and brought a student voice to the workshop. The way the workshop was modelled was less than ideal however we hope it will see a positive outcome for students.

SUMMARY

Since before I knew what the Guild was, the Student Guild Regulations have been under review and it is with great pleasure to say that finally they might actually be finished! Honestly, it does not quite seem real or fair that I get to be the Chair that passes the Regs. Previous Chairs have had their entire terms dominated by this one document only for me to pass it with comparably minor changes. Karma (if that's what this is?) isn't letting me go easily though, as we have what feels like a million things to do now. Every policy must be updated to reflect the new numbering in the Regulations and a considerable amount of content has been removed and must now be added to policies and rules existing and new. Regardless, this is a very exciting time.

Also, after many months of stress, I have finally settled on a theme for the 2020 Cruickshank-Routley Memorial Guild Ball so get excited for the announcement of that in mid-August! Clear 25 September in your calendars – it's going to be a good one!

PROJECT UPDATE

Legislative Review

The Regulations have passed Governance! I'm looking forward to these being passed at Council on Wednesday so they can be passed to Senate and finally be done! A lot has been taken out of the Regs and will need to be put into existing policies and rules or turned into new rules so I have started the process with the Governance Committee of splitting up those jobs. We're looking at a very busy few months ahead. The Regs Communication team has also started up and will be meeting soon to start work on finding the best way to communicate the changes to the Regs to ordinary students.

Governance

The Regs have again been the focus of Governance recently but I have been slowly working on the Student Innovation Centre rules and updates to the SOC and Environment Department Rules.

Election Culture Working Group

Nothing too exciting to update here, just chugging along figuring out the best ways to incorporate the responses to the Student Survey into tangible outcomes.

Guild Ball 2020

After months of stress, we have finally got a Ball theme sorted! The Ball Sub-Com has 30 members and will be meeting the Thursday after Council to get started on making the 2020 Guild Ball the best one yet.

SUMMARY

This past month has seen attacks from the Government to higher education. I have been working alongside Curtin University with our joint campaign “Hands Off Our Education” to combat the educational reforms proposed by Dan Tehan. I appreciate everyone’s support in this so far and encourage you to support the campaign and educate your committees on how these changes will affect your faculty. I have spoken to a couple of deans from science and HMS who have agreed that these changes will only weaken the higher education system. We successfully ran a protest at Parliament House including speakers from the NTEU, Greens, Labour and School Strike.

This campaign and the education reforms emphasise how important it is for student representatives to be on their respective committees and paying attention to things such as:

- Units being cut
- Courses being cut
- Casual staff being cut
- Less contact hours

We will be looking to host our EAN Open Meeting 2 on the 3rd August through a panel discussion format. The goals of which are to educate students on the changes as well as build momentum to the National Day of Action “No Fee Hikes” on August 28th.

Base Funding has been allocated out and SPG applications will be due early next semester. All the remaining SPG money was redistributed into base funding for semester 2. The due date of the SPG’s will be decided by the education council.

Class Reps are being chosen for semester 2. We are hoping to encourage them to host ‘lecture watching’ sessions watching sessions or informal networking evenings to make up for the lack of face-face lectures.

Ed Week is in Week 1. The Education committee is planning on running a series of events that week including a Career Ready Workshop with RSD and an EAN Open Meeting.

Looking forward to the commencement of semester 2!

PROJECT UPDATE

Hands Off our Education Campaign

This is a joint campaign with Curtin University. So far, we have organised a rally outside parliament house including speakers from the NTEU, Greens, Labor and School Strike. It included performances from WAPPA students and received media coverage. Overall, it was a good turn-out, but I would love to see more at the upcoming rallies. I would love to include more input from Fac-Socs about this campaign so please fill out the consultation form or contact me directly.

UWA Students Against Staff Cuts

This campaign aims to raise awareness of the cuts that are happening at UWA as well as create more understanding as to how these cuts will affect UWA students. We hosted our Solidarity Sit-In with staff which has a great turn-out as well as our very first open meeting to discuss the road forward with the campaign. We have opened a cut-reporting form in the EAN page where students can help report cuts to us to ensure the Guild is on top of all educational cuts.

For faculty societies it is extremely important that you are engaging with your faculty meetings and keeping on top of all changes that occur. It is our responsibility to ensure that we are aware of changes happening within the educational space and to represent the best interest of students in those meetings. Its been amazing to see some great work by MSS with their video about education reforms. If you would like more involvement in this campaign please reach out to me via email!

Work Plans

I hope everyone's work plans are progressing well, thank you to those who have sent me theirs already, it's been really awesome to see some really great initiatives being undertaken. The aim of the Plan is to provide a guideline of educational changes you wish to see within your faculty. Overall, this project will not only ensure continuity for incoming president but a more effective student representation attitude towards being a Faculty Society President.

Consistent LMS Formatting

Proposal has been put forward to encourage all Unit Coordinators to follow a faculty specified template to encourage greater consistency across units. The wide array of LMS arrangements is confusing and unnecessary and can greater disadvantage those with accessibility requirements. This was discussed with the ADLT's and agreed that there should be greater consistency across units.

Week 0

Proposal has been put forward to allow student access to more learning material before learning and teaching begins. This includes; pre-reading materials, assessment dates, week 1 content. This was discussed at the student experience committee meeting, and has been given approval to commence semester 1 2021.

Tutorial Participation

This was discussed with the ADLT's. Our aim was to create a non-blanket system through which students can be assessed in a more constructive and clear method for their tutorial work, while still gaining the necessary learning outcomes. It has been agreed that tutorial participation assessment is ambiguous and needs further workshopping.

Second Study Break

Proposal has been put forward to allow for a second study break earlier in semester 2 as well as for upcoming semesters. This has been scheduled to be discussed at the next meeting of the Academic Calendar Review. This date has been undecided.

Class Reps

Class rep email have been sent out to UC's and we will be selecting class reps at the end of this week.

SUMMARY

This month, the Environment Department have worked diligently, despite disruptions due to sickness and other issues, to prepare for Semester 2. This includes preparing for EnviroWeek and organising collaborations throughout the semester.

Beyond this, we have also made sound progress on our projects and have successfully filled vacant positions on the Environment Department committee. Due to the large number of applicants, we have managed to establish a working group targeted at the relationship between economics and environment/sustainability given the on-going effects of COVID-19. This also extends to FFUWA, with many applicants also looking to engage with environmental activism.

I have also worked with the Sustainability Working Group on various projects and consulted with McCusker representatives with regards to the Green Impact Program and better student engagement with sustainability at UWA.

PROJECT UPDATE

Environment Department Events

The Environment Department has planned a number of events throughout the semester outside of EnviroWeek to continue to reach out and engage students. The current schedule looks as follows:

- Wk 3: Proposed collaboration with Welfare with plants and jars, Beach Clean-up with Sober?
- Wk 4: EnviroWeek
- Wk 5: Proposed collaboration with Guild Volunteering, Panel Discussion hosted by McCusker
- Wk 6: Potential Fringe collaboration, Proposed collaboration with Pride for PrideFest
- Wk 8: Proposed week for Sustainable Careers Café

EnviroWeek

We have worked diligently on our key events for the semester and reached out to external organisation to help run smaller events. We are hoping to put out the event for the week up by the end of this week/start of next week and begin promotion. We have collaborations with various clubs, departments and external organisations planned and are very excited to see the week come to fruition.

Furniture and I.T Reuse Program

I have begun work with various UWA Staff and student representatives on the proposed Furniture and I.T program. Whilst progress has been slow thus-far, I am eager to see this program be implemented in the near future at some capacity (potentially trailed at some point this semester).

Green Student Guidebook

Draft of Guidebook has been completed, looking to get feedback from relevant environment groups on campus. Incorporated sections on accessibility and activism and the revised Green Student Directory. We have drafted up a design skeleton based off of the Sustainable Clubs Guide.

Green Impact Program

I have started looking at the potential of expanding the Green Impact program to be applicable for clubs and FacSocs. Currently working with Geraldine Tan (Sustainability Working Group) and relevant student auditors to see how this would work. I have also started work on adapting sustainability presentations I have previously done at college to be more applicable to UWA, I look to be presenting this in semester two.

Economics x Environment Working Group

Have started work on establishing a working group targeting a topical issue committee has highlighted as a result of COVID-19. This comes in agreement with proposals from Clean State regarding sustainable stimulus packages and the need for clean jobs as we slowly return to some form of 'normalcy'. We have got a small team working on this at the moment and are hoping to expand with the potential of hosting events catered toward this issue later in the semester. If anyone knows anyone interested, or is themselves interested, in finding out more, please don't hesitate to get in touch!

Organic Waste Project

Deferred introducing another Compost bin due to student misuse of the current bin. We are looking instead to better promote the bin location, but also create infographics directed toward what can and cannot be used in the bin.

SUMMARY

This month we focused on wrapping up the UWA's Got Talent show, with the prizes being distributed and feedback received on how it can be improved. Our other main focus was working on how we can include CaLD training for clubs to ensure that they run events that are culturally and linguistically diverse. This can be beneficial for more engagement from all students during specific theme weeks such as Faith Week, which has historically not been as engaged with by all of the UWA Community, but we're hoping that we can develop some strategies to combat that.

PROJECT UPDATE

Faith Week and Fringe Festival

This year we aim to bring a more inclusive and diverse Faith Week, which means that more of the UWA community can engage with unfamiliar areas of faith and spirituality. Faith Week is going to be on Week 4 at this stage, with Fringe Festival being pushed to week 6. Our aim for PAC this year has been to promote events and collaborations that are more inclusive and that all students can enjoy.

Innovation Grants

We have yet to receive applications for clubs to submit innovation grants for this semester, some more communications on the application might be needed from our end. If we haven't received any more applications we might approach marketing to help us out with some promotion materials via the FB page.

Club Events

We want to encourage more PAC clubs to run events during semester 2, especially the clubs that would have been involved in Language Week and Social Impact Week, so we are looking at having some sort of incentive for clubs to do so, but that might need more workshopping before we discuss anything concrete.

SUMMARY

July has been focussed on rescheduling previous events and running the first proper event this year, our Camp. Both officers completed the UWA run student leadership training course, and completed all other necessary preparations for an exciting and cleanly-run camp. With that successfully completed, we are focusing on the other main events for Pride: Pride week, Our rescheduled quiz night, and Retrograde.

PROJECT UPDATE

Camp Camp

Pride's annual camp: Camp Camp, was hosted on the 21st-23rd this month, we had an incredible time and a smooth run with little to no deviance from the planned itinerary. Attendance was nearly double that of last years with 24 people attending, many of whom were new to the Department and University. We also hosted an Outspoken creative session to encourage new creatives to participate and to provide multiple collaborative art collage works to feature in the magazine. We also had a range of exciting activities such as a Murder Mystery night, a Quiz session, a scavenger hunt, screen printing and painting.

Questioning? Pride's Quiz night

Continuing Pride's preparations from march, the rescheduled quiz night was almost entirely planned already leaving only the few final touches and re-advertising for us to do now. Active ticket stalls and social media posting will re-commence with the beginning of Semester and hopefully encourage more sales.

Pride Week

Week 6, the historical Pride Week will be run similarly to last years, with daily events and encouraging other clubs to participate in PrideFest with stalls and activities.

Outspoken

After the creative session on Camp outspoken has gained new interested contributors and continues to be managed directly by the editor. Submissions are going well

FINANCE

Having issues changing the password on Netsuite- currently looking into fixing the problem. Apologies for any inconveniences.

ACHIEVEMENTS TO DATE

- Pride's Camp Camp successfully attended
- Quiz Night ticket sales restarting.
- Welcome back events planned for collectives.

PROJECT UPDATE

PSA Research Week

PSA is reaching out to organisation to find financial and non-financial sponsors to organise the event. UWA Future Students team is helping the PSA with press release and also to find industrial sponsors. PSA will be meeting McKinsey to discuss about how they can help us in organising the event.

The purpose of the Research Week activities is three-fold. Firstly, to showcase the research being done by postgraduate researchers across the University, and encourage establishment of cross-Faculty collaboration. Secondly, to encourage more undergraduate students to consider research pathways. Thirdly, to facilitate collaborations with industry. Therefore, a range of activities are proposed for PSA Research Week 2020. We will have a series of mini-symposiums focussed on various themes aligned with UWA's Grand Challenges, a "Research Open-Day" including stalls and hands-on activities, and there will be opportunities for individual Schools, Clubs and Industry partners to get involved and also run their own events throughout the week. We will also host a Careers-focussed afternoon in conjunction with interested Industry partners, leading into a networking evening event.

PSA Leadership Workshop

As promised at the start of this year the PSA organised a leadership workshop online. Though we had less attendees than expected, feedback from the students was good and they like to have similar event every month. From feedbacks received I can confirm that it was successful event.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- HDR Milestone extensions
- UP system for Postgrad coursework
- UP system for Honours coursework unit
- Extension of withdrawal date.
- Working group to support international HDR students.
- Scholarship Extensions for domestic and international students.
- Part-time option for HDR international students.

SUMMARY

Over the last month, the RSD has been able to optimistically plan ahead for the semester, hoping that restrictions don't clamp down too harshly again. These include our big three events: two Tav Shows and Battle of the Bands. As well as these, the RSD is organising a Life Skills Workshops series in which we will be running tutorials on basic life skills that are never formally taught as a part of one's education. These include car maintenance and how to change a tyre, financial literacy and how to do a tax return, clothing mending, cooking basics and more. We also are hoping to improve on areas highlighted by our college row survey that was released during the holidays. From this we have made an anonymous submissions point for feedback and questions that will be reviewed weekly, will improve on making ourselves more accessible for help, and will help to further bridge the gap between college students and the Guild, UWA and the wider community.

MEETINGS ATTENDED

Date	Meeting	Purpose
09/07/2020	College Row Cultural Review Taskforce Meeting	Covered college and university policies on sexual harassment and assault, choosing a framework to base the new policy from and discussing areas of possible concern.
01/07/2020	Health Services Delivery Review Co-Design	Workshopped how we could best implement recommendations 3 and 6 from the UWA Health Services Delivery Review with other key stakeholders.
14/07/2020	Young Leaders Council Event	Gave a speech on how one can best get involved at university after being a school leader to year 12 leaders from Perth and internationally that are a part of the Young Leaders Council. A mention must go to Riley Klug and Jocelle Co here for their excellent work in getting the YLC running and functioning so well in such a dysfunctional year.
14/07/2020	RSD Meeting	First RSD meeting for the semester, where we all discussed what the semester will be looking like and ideas for different events and initiatives, as well as reviewing the survey sent out to all college residents.
23/07/2020	UWA Tavern	Met with Hayden from the UWA Tavern to discuss the RSD calendar for semester two and how it will all be running, as well as what needs to be done before then.
23/07/2020	RSD Meeting	Discussed at length more finite plans for the semester, with people being assigned to each event, how they will be running and what will be required for each event.
24/07/2020	RSD Executive Meeting	Clarified all of our roles and goals for the semester, as well as ensuring that we will be keeping each other accountable.

PROJECT UPDATE

Tav Show 1

Has just been rescheduled for Wednesday the 26th of August due to phase 5 being pushed back as to allow everyone who wants to come along to be included. The theme will be to wear your college merchandise which should encourage a strongly spirited event and not put too much pressure on having to find anything to wear. All going to schedule thus far and should be a great event.

Battle of the Bands

By far our biggest event we have coming up for the semester, with 1200 people expected (given no restrictions on people attending). There is a lot of planning yet to be done, but it has all gotten underway with a schedule and budget now in-place for the event. The date is confirmed for the 24th of September. Again, it shall be one ripper of an event.

Tav Show 2

This Tav Show will be following the Inter-College Swimming Carnival which has previously been a great combination and allows people to let off some steam after what can be a heated evening. Everything is on track thus far with a date set for the 7th of October.

SUMMARY

To a slightly more significant extent than that represented in my May Report, this semester has been especially quiet due to looming exams that I have been preparing for, and were completed during the period of the 20th July till the 24th July. However, this period has provided a good opportunity for me to refocus and re-centre myself for the coming Semester.

With Covid-associated social distancing restrictions set to relax further, the first few weeks of Semester 2 present a special opportunity for me to re-strategise and continue the momentum that SOC had built up in the early weeks of Semester 1, without the hindrance of a prolonged lockdown that plagued my committee last semester.

While I have been preoccupied with exams over the last couple of weeks of July, SOC's efforts have been predominantly devoted to gearing up for Semester 2 in order to carry on with the momentum that we built last Sem and to ensure that Clubs are in the best possible position to bounce back in Semester 2 harder and stronger than ever.

PROJECT UPDATE

Club Carnival (Semester 2)

I have delegated most of my efforts re Club Carnival to my Secretary and two of my OCM's. With Club Carnival just under two weeks away at the time of writing, I have directed my Club Carnival Subcommittee to design the poster and other promotional material for Club Carnival, as well as organising the general logistics of the event itself (ie. stall set-up, location, etc). Most significantly, we have been able to facilitate a successful collaboration with PAC to secure live music for the event and similar novelties that we also intend to use to promote the event itself in upcoming SOC Meetings and similar uses of campus space.

First Post-Iso SOC Meeting

On the 14th July, SOC had the pleasure of welcoming all 159 of its affiliated clubs back to in-person SOC Meetings. This meeting took place in the Social Sciences Lecture Theatre and marked the beginning of Club's post-covid recovery. Most significantly, this event marked the first mass gathering of over 150 people held at UWA since mandatory lockdown. It was especially invigorating to see all of UWA's SOC-affiliated clubs back in full after the significant disruption posed to Semester 1 by the pandemic.

SOC Subcommittee

With Club Carnival and other large-scale events on the horizon, SOC has been looking to get more committee members on-board to help run and set up our SOC Meetings, and similar events, as well as to help our Treasurer process Grant applications to ensure that clubs receive funding in a timely fashion.

We were able to secure 12 new additions to the SOC Committee and received an unprecedented 54 applications. This week, we went through every application and determined which applicants were deemed successful. The selection process was such that each application was directly compared against every other in order to ensure that the process was as fair, equitable and transparent as possible.

Enviro Grant

As per last report, my impending exams have significantly slowed my progress on the Enviro Grant. However, I have spent a considerable amount of time workshoping and improving my rationale for the grant by collaborating with the Environment Department and other relevant stakeholders. It is my intention to implement this measure before the end of Semester 2.

Updating SOC Reg's

No update from last report.

Student Tenant Rep Campaign and Applications

Our first event as part of a campaign on student housing rights and affordability, as actioned by the June Guild Council, is having an interactive "The True Cost Of Living Out of Home" stall on Oak Lawn, on the 28th of July, 1-2pm. This is an opportunity for all students who come past to put in their guesses for the amount of hours needed, income level required and costs of various living expenses that a student must face, and how proposed cuts to JobSeeker and JobKeeper will affect the ease of meeting this.

As well as that task, they'll be asked for their ideas on how we can run an effective and engaging campaign to make 'as much noise as possible' to decision makers about housing affordability and rights, education costs and our welfare system. There is every intention to run this alongside, and as part of Maintain/Raise The Rate, Save Our Students and UWA Students Against Cuts campaigns and events.

Applications to be our Welfare Dept.'s Student Tenant Rep, who we will select as a committee after Week 3, will take over this area and be the main person in charge of collecting these voices and experiences from students living out of home, and planning and running events, initiatives and the broad campaign on this issue.

Other business

More detailed summaries of our other initiatives and projects unrelated to general events will be included in my next report after touching base with my project leads and committee members involved.
