SUMMARY

An exciting development for the upcoming months is the successful passing of the supplementary exam's proposal at Education Committee. We anticipate the proposal to pass at the next academic board. In the education space, we prepare for upcoming 2022 exams and COVID-19 contingencies should a snap-lockdown occur. Furthermore, alongside Convocation we have discussed mentoring for students as a project for collaboration moving forward.

With regards to the proposed recission of the Anthropology & Sociology major along with a reduction in unit offerings for Master of International Relations, Asian Studies and Human Geography & Planning has been a topic at the forefront of the UWA Student Guild. We have seen large numbers of students who have mobilised and expressed their wish to be involved with the campaign. With further changes announced to the School of Molecular Sciences, we will be working in collaboration with UWA Science Union & ChemnBio clubs to provide appropriate feedback mechanisms for all students affected. We continue to offer support services for students whose mental health & wellbeing are consequently affected by these changes. We have contacted the Vice-Chancellery to run a town-hall event for students.

Post-India Week, we have met with stakeholders in the University and the Guild to debrief and amend processes moving forward. Discussions so far, lean heavily towards housing all consulate collaborations under the International Students Department. Further consultation with the University and the Guild Departments will be necessary moving into 2022.

Councillors will see over the coming week, the release of the mental health framework survey. Everyone is encouraged to fill out the survey to the best of their abilities to inform UWA's mental health strategy for the next few years.

We have also finalised the communications to Guild clubs & departments regarding Insurance. A finalised infographic will be circulated at all subsidiary council meetings. Please make the time to view and pass on to any relevant members. Thank you to April, Eleanor and Chloe who contributed.

We head into an extremely busy October, with Relay for Life on the 2nd-3rd and Guild Ball on the 8th. We also have the Guild OGM on the 12th of Oct. With polling now closed, I am working alongside Guild Management to construct a transition plan for the incoming 2022 Guild Council.

Finally, the Cruickshank-Routley applications have opened and closed. We will be meeting with the panel comprising of members from Academic Board, Uni executive and the families moving forward.

*Kind regards,
Emma*

PROJECT UPDATE

Supplementary Exams

After meeting with members of education committee, we are looking to submit a proposal in collaboration with the DVCE to Education committee before taking it to AB. Ideally supps will become available for all units within the core major sequence. The aim is to promote more academic diversity, encourage students to try new subjects, and relieve academic stress. This project will likely be finalised in September.

Underpass Renovation

We have approval from the Perth City Council, Campus Management and Main Roads to commence maintenance work on lighting and security camera. We are in collaboration with Campus Management for the tender of an artist.

Skill Share Network

Through collaboration with Venture and SOC we are working on providing a skill share platform for UWA students. The platform will be a space for students to advertise their skills for free or a fee. The aim of the platform is for students to contact and work with fellow students when finding assistance with individual or club-run initiatives. The skill share website will be able to be accessed externally to allow external organisations to utilise our students skills while providing development opportunities. Project is waiting on JuiceBox for confirmation of the creation of a new webpage.

Second Study Break

The Academic Calendar Review dates have not been organised for 2021, but I will continue to advocate for its commencement in 2021.

Mindful Campus

In consultation with UWA Student Life, The Living Room and the Welfare Department we will be investigating opportunities to integrate wellbeing strategies into the UWA Curriculum. This project is waiting on the meeting of WA Student Health and Wellbeing Partnership which has been delayed as a result of COVID-19. We are waiting on contact from the DVCE to re start the partnership.

UWA Mental Health Framework

I am working alongside Lisa Goldacre and other researchers from across the University to design an assessment of mental health at UWA. Following this survey, we will be looking to engage student representatives through working groups for consultation throughout all disciplines of the University. The survey is being reviewed by Welfare & Advocacy committee before being circulated in September. I have sent out invitations to councillors to save the date for the tentative focus groups.

After Hours Mental Health Support

We are working with Student Life to provide after hours assistance via a phone line to students requiring Mental Health support.

Isolation on Campus Campaign

Campaign on loneliness and isolation in collaboration with Welfare and ISD. Aimed to release in Sem 1 2021, with the overall goal of breaking down the cultural barriers of seeking and recognising help. An event timeline has been delegated to ISD and Welfare.

Ask for Angela Expansion

Expanding Ask Angela through integration with Wellbeing Volunteers to attend UWA events, with first disclosures harassment training. Volunteers will be easily identifiable and attend UWA functions over a certain number, on campus and off campus.

Parking on Campus

We are in the process of reducing the number of reserved bays. I have a collective in the Education Council, working to come to a consensus that we will propose to Campus Management. While very disappointing news from Campus Management regarding the trial, we still are looking to trial the integration of mixed bays in Sem 2, 2021. We are working with campus management to investigate the viabilities of mixed bays via a stakeholder survey.

SVLG Level 1

We aim to encourage UWA students to get involved with our campus and local community. To encourage more participation, we are working to provide a level 1 service-learning unit for committee members that do not qualify for the SVLG level 2 units.

Guild Refurbishment

We are looking to new ideas for the Guild Village space and infrastructure. We are working with different organisations to find the best fit for student needs.

Guild Strategic Plan

Work has commenced on the strategic plan. Thank you to everyone who has answered my reflective questions via email.

Ferry Project

With the support of the Vice-Chancellor, letters have been written to the Premier, Minister for Transport, MP for Curtin, Major of City of Perth and the Head of Tourism WA. We have met with representatives from the office of MP Celia Hammond for their support. We are meeting with more stakeholders over the coming month. We are meeting Dr. Katrina Stratton (member for Nedlands) in August to discuss her support for the project.

SUMMARY

September has been intense, with the Guild Elections running throughout the month as well as studying obligations beginning to pick up again. It's been a productive month in seeing my primary projects, Parking on Campus and the Lyn Beazley Institute (LBI), producing some amazing achievements and goals for the future. I look forward to the next two months to see these projects out to their finish. Looking into next month, I am hoping to work with the 108th Guild Council finish the Guild Strategic Plan ready for next year's council and the direction Guild should take for the next 5 years.

Lyn Beazley Institute

Looking at restructuring LBI again for next year to better facilitate the goals that the Executive have decided upon. Talking with staff, they are very interested in what can be achieved but would like something more substantive and concrete before exploring the idea further.

Parking on Campus

Proposal has been accepted by Parking and Transport Steering Committee and they are starting to work on exactly how the new carparks will be implemented, as well as looking at the redistribution of student bays across campus to better assist students with parking. Additionally have proposed lowering the per-hour cost of paid parking bays, more to follow up with next month.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Parking Proposal accepted, two new carparks implemented hopefully over the summer break.
- LBI restructure proposal to better facilitate goals of LBI

SUMMARY

It has been a very interesting month for me as I take on this new role whilst balancing my continued role as Access Co-Officer. That being said, I have taken this opportunity to reflect on projects undertaken within the General Secretary portfolio this year – such as the Free Breakfast and Night Markets – to improve their functioning and/or form alternative proposals.

It is important to note that because no chair was elected for Corporate Services or Catering and Tavern during last council, which has meant that writing the Annual report and holding important update meetings have been paused.

MEETINGS ATTENDED

PROJECT UPDATE

OGC Check-ins

I have sent out emails to all OGCs to have a check in. Big thanks to Lachlan and Omar for responding and meeting with me, it was a great opportunity to receive feedback and look toward supporting them in future projects.

Free Breakfast

After discussions with Tony, Mutya and Jack, as well as consultation with Amitabh, we are looking into improving the free breakfast with Student Assist under the welfare portfolio. This comes as issues were raised with the intention of the free breakfast and its ability to reach its proposed target audience. It is of my belief that we can achieve the intuition through other means and hopefully this will be introduced for next year.

Guild Ordinary General Meeting

The 2021 OGM will be held on 12th October, we need 100 people to attend. I urge you all to share around your channels – there will be free ice cream for people that attend. Agenda has been finalised and will be shared around shortly.

Club Overdrafts and Payment Plans

On-going issues with UWA Debating Union's overdraft payment (since 2019), I have reached out with Fiona and will continue to remind them to pay until it is finalised. They have yet to sign onto a payment plan and have since been blocked from hiring guild spaces, etc until it has been signed and finalised with myself and finance.

We have signed an overdraft for UPhil, who will be paying after their ball. Note that they are not offered a payment plan, this is no longer provided (offered last year as a result of COVID). We need to be cracking down on clubs to make payments back and keep receipts (proof of payment going toward activities) – will be followed in BPhil situation.

Financial Counselling

Earlier this year, I was contacted by the Financial Counsellors Association of WA to introduce a financial counsellor to UWA (similar to Curtin). Since stepping into my role as General Secretary, I have taken this project on and have initiated consultation with Jack and FCAWA to introduce the service as an extension of our currently provided Tax support service.

ATTENDANCE

NB: On-going attendance needs to be reported on in General Secretary report.

PROJECT UPDATES

Guild Council Standing Orders

Passed at previous Guild Council.

Election Culture Committee

A survey for students to complete regarding Guild elections will be created, as surveys are posted once every two years.

Accountability & Transparency

This survey forms the responses from Guild Council on what transparency means to them. Most of the responses focussed on financial accountability. Other areas included process transparency and decision-making transparency. The aim of this survey is to report to Guild Council on what is already in place in those areas and possible areas of improvement. I will begin working on a framework to bring to an upcoming Governance Committee meeting.

SOC & PAC Rules

The SOC & PAC rules have been approved by the Governance committee and consultation with clubs has taken place as well, discussed in the SOCPAC meeting. They will be approved at this Guild Council.

Education Council Rules

I met with Emma & April after the last Guild Council, then I met with Tony. The conclusion is that these rules will be updated next year with Jackson McDonald lawyers consultation.

Sports Department Rules

Motion to approve in this Council meeting.

Pride Department Rules

The rules will be presented in Tuesday's Governance meeting then approved in Council.

RSD Rules

The rules will be presented in Tuesday's Governance meeting then approved in Council.

Welfare Department Rules

The rules will be presented in Tuesday's Governance meeting then approved in Council.

Alumni Engagement Committee Constitution

The rules will be presented in Tuesday's Governance meeting then approved in Council.

SUMMARY

This month has been busy, with a number of projects being completed and new issues presenting itself through UniAccess and ASR technology. That being said, we have been able to work alongside staff (namely through UniAccess and the Education Enhancement Unit) and relevant student representatives to ensure we are continuing to push for adequate services to both remain and be implemented on trial basis.

Beyond this, this month saw a number of set back with events not coming to fruition due to various issues with cross-collaboration. Despite this, we also managed to run two important events this month – safeTalk and relay for life fundraising sausage sizzle – which provided a great opportunity reach out to students and highlight the services we provide through the Guild but also other important services through UniAccess and Student Wellbeing.

Big highlights from this month was the completion of the Accessible Clubs Guide that will be released after Week 11. This comes at a time where student reps have ample opportunity to look over and implement into handovers for next year. Another was the release of the Royal Commission survey, which has gain a lot of traction over the past few weeks!

PROJECT UPDATE

Access Club Room

To add on from our report last month, we have been disappointed with the continuous disrespect shown to the Access Department room. Despite being more diligent on ensuring that the room is used for its intended purposes, we've been let down with the piles of rubbish and various items that have been left behind and are now looking into ways of solving this issue.

Accessible Clubs Guide

Completed thanks to the hard work of our OCM, Ara Watson, and has now been sent off to Xander to finalise the design. We are aiming to release this in week 11 and will promote to clubs and faculty societies soon after.

Accessible Education Guide

Following the appointment of the new Education Council VP, we met with Priyanka Fernando to provide an overview of the work that has been done for the Accessible Education Guide. This will be completed for next month.

Mindfulness through Art

In addition to our collaborations with the Women's Department's Access Collective and their Damsel Magazine, we have been reached out to by the Living Room to continue our series of 'Mindfulness through Art workshops'. This time/date for the event is TBD but we are looking to take TLR's advice and run it as a de-stress event near exam time.

ASR Transcription

The implementation of the service has been received well by students – both in the trial and in its wide-release. Despite this, we have seen the Law School introduce an opt-out system for Unit Coordinators which has proved to be incredibly detrimental to students with access requirements in Law, but also those who use the service as a secondary study tool. We are conscious that the system introduced in Law School has the potential to have flow-on effects to other schools. With that in mind, we are working closely with Emma Mezger, April Htun, UniAccess and the Education Enhancement Unit, to fight for students and ensure the service remains widely implemented. Furthermore, we are looking to advocate for policy surrounding ASR, functioning similarly to that of Lecture Recordings that does allow exemption for UCs but only under valid circumstances.

Royal Commission into Disabilities

We have finally released the survey for the Royal Commission, which has had significant engagement from students thus far – big thanks to Ara Watson for creating the survey and consulting with students and the committee to ensure we ask the right questions. We will be reaching out to other departments and faculty societies to promote the survey in the coming week before writing a submission to the commission.

LWAG

We have been working with LWAG over the year to promote Guild department and club/FacSoc collaboration to promote the gallery and increase student engagement. We have helped with their 'This is NOT a Gala' event and will look to further look at ways to involve disability activism in future events.

Relay for Life

With a number of students (including ourselves) raising concerns as of late, we have begun consultation with the current Relay committee to ensure next year there is adequate representation from Access students in initial planning stages for the event. We also are looking at methods to lobby the Cancer Council to provide more money to assist in making this event as accessible as possible for students. That being said, it is disappointing we have only been reached out to now about this, however it is important to note that the Cancer Council themselves don't have accessibility plans in place for this event (even in larger-scale events) and that the committee have been in consultation with Guild Events throughout this process. Whilst this year won't be as accessible, we have tried to look at all options we can to improve it and highlight what is in place, and we hope to have a larger presence next year.

Beyond this, we ran a sausage sizzle fundraiser recently which was a fantastic opportunity to reach out to students about Access whilst also raising money for a worthwhile cause.

Accessible Activism

Progress has been made in creating an outline of the policy and referring to pre-existing policy. We aim to have this completed for next month and will continue to consult with Adam and the Governance Committee till it has been implemented.

UniAccess

We recently met with UniAccess to follow up on a number of projects and introduce the Access Department to Liz Sullivan, who returned to the role this semester. A number of key projects have been taken from this, which we aim to get the ball rolling on before the end of our terms. These include:

- Postgrad HDR student support
- ASR Technology
- Medical Boxes in Guild precinct
- On-going student advocacy to ensure services are better supported and pushed to university management (student experience)
- Reid Sensory Room

Beyond this, we have also continued discussions around VIVA and providing UniAccess support for Disability Support Workers – both of which UniAccess will be making national enquires with other Universities.

SUMMARY

Keywords: elections, referendum, ASR, campaign, awards, mania

So, this month saw the vibrancy of Guild election season. Just when you think you've seen it all, people will find ways to surprise you 😊 I cannot articulate just how great it feels to be on the other side of it though.

Regarding the campaign, this month has focused primarily on promoting the referendum and encouraging students to vote yes. We got an overwhelming yes vote which is awesome! The next steps involve a second Senate protest and possibly a town hall with the Vice-Chancellor.

One of the main concerns that has occupied me this month is the ASR transcript technology. Following the Law School's opposition against the service, I am worried that other schools will follow in opting out. The same concerns are shared with the Education Enhancement Unit, the Access Department, and the Guild President. We are now planning on organising a campaign to save the technology and raise awareness on how discontinuing it would be ableist.

Other significant Ed Council matters include finalizing the awards for Guild Ball, which is exciting! I received applications from several Faculty Societies which was great to see. This task was delegated to my executive committee however, as I have conflict of interest with Science Union. I am stoked to read about all the amazing things the FacSocs have achieved this year soon. This month has also been light on meetings, which is a great break.

Aside from Ed Council itself, I have been rather manic this month.

63 days left. I hate it here.

ASR CAMPAIGN (NEW)

Opposition against ASR technology has been a major concern. Law School has expressed disinterest in using the service, and the EEU, Access Department, Emma and myself are worried that complacency will arise from other schools. I have forwarded student feedback to the DVCE and a campaign will be organized to save the technology.

EDUCATION COUNCIL AWARDS (COMPLETE)

Recipients for the Best Faculty Society, Runner Up Best Faculty Society, Most Innovative Faculty Society, and Best New Event awards were chosen by my executive committee. Guild events was then notified so that these awards can be organized for Guild Ball. I did not take part in this selection process due to conflict of interest with Science Union.

SENATE PROTEST 2

Second Senate protest to push the referendum voting result to management.

NATIONAL TERTIARY EDUCATORS UNION (NTEU) STAFF CASUALISATION INITIATIVE (ON-GOING)

I have been contacted by Andrew Broertjes, a casual representative of the NTEU UWA Branch Committee, following the 'Defend Our Education' protest earlier in March. He wishes to work alongside the Guild to raise awareness on staff casualisation issues on campus in the form of a 'Casual Fete', which he wishes to run at the end of semester two. The proposed date is October 19 from 12-2. The NTEU will be organising circus entertainment and guide dogs, and Eleanor and I will be organising student club involvement and Guild logistics. I am currently investigating how FacSocs would like to get involved.

SCIENCE STUDENT X STAFF FORUM (COMPLETED)

This forum ran on September 15, in the exact same manner as the Social Sciences forum with the same purpose. It was a great opportunity for students to be informed about the recent cuts announcement to Molecular Sciences from affected students and staff, and get involved in the student fightback.

REFERENDUM (ON-GOING)

We got an overwhelming yes vote! A press release statement has been made by the EAN and we are currently organising our next steps, which will most likely be a town hall.

GUILD TOWN HALL (ON-GOING)

Initially planned for during the two-week consultation period following the molecular sciences change proposal release but did not receive availabilities from the Vice-Chancellor. Now that we have a yes vote from the referendum, we will use this to encourage the VC to attend a town hall.

FOYER DISPLAYS (COMPLETE)

Foyer display to promote the referendum was set up in Reid as BJM was unavailable.

COFFEE CUPS (COMPLETE)

Stickers promoting the EAN page were designed, printed, and put on coffee cups before Guild elections to promote the referendum. Cups from Hackett, Catalyst, and Nedlands cafes were provided.

BLACKBOARD ULTRA BASE NAVIGATION (ON-GOING)

I am currently organising a 'Student Life' block on the LMS homepage where FacSoc orientation videos, EAN campaign matters, and Guild channels can be published.

ACCESSIBLE EDUCATION HANDBOOK (ON-GOING)

This project is finally being resurrected now that I have a new Vice-President. This task has been delegated to Priyanka and she will be working alongside the Access Department to complete it.

ED BLITZ MONDAYS (ONGOING)

Organised by EAN. Following the Activist Forum, it has been decided to dedicate Mondays to going on poster runs and completing campaign jobs.

PRESS RELEASE STATEMENT RE: OPPOSITION TO SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES RESTRUCTURE (COMPLETED)

In light of the recent announcement surrounding the restructuring of the School of Social Sciences, I wrote a press release statement alongside Emma Mezger outlining the situation and the Guild's opposition to the changes. It has been published on the Guild social media platforms and shared by the representatives.

NO CUTS TO SOCIAL SCIENCES PROTEST 1 (COMPLETED)

July 16. Week after the announcement of the restructuring and was a massive success – well over a hundred students, staff, and NTEU members were in attendance. The protest was chaired by Nicole and speakers included an Anthropology student, NTEU representative, and myself. Following the speeches, we marched down to Reid Library and pasted posters outlining student demands and petition signatories on the rotunda. This protest generated excellent momentum behind the campaign against the cuts, and we have been organising more demonstrations since.

PROTEST OUTSIDE ACADEMIC BOARD (COMPLETED)

Organised and run by Nicole Mcewen. This protest was a small speak out outside the building where Academic Board was being conducted. The purpose of this was to continue to show student opposition to the school restructures. Guild and student turnout could have been greater.

SEMESTER 2 ORIENTATION (COMPLETED)

Nicole Mcewen organised to have flyers outlining the current education situation distributed to the incoming students. A stall was also organised for Guild on the Green where students were informed of upcoming protests and EAN events.

ACTIVIST FORUM (COMPLETED)

Scheduled for July 29 (Thursday Week 1) at 11am in Fox Lecture Theatre. This will be an interactive forum for students to hear from other students and staff about the cuts, and ask questions, discuss and debate anything relating to the current situation at UWA and other universities alike. This forum will also be an excellent opportunity for students to get involved with the campaign and plan their fightback for the semester.

RALLY AGAINST THE RESTRUCTURE (COMPLETED)

Protest occurred on Aug 4, week 2. Speeches commenced outside Reid Library, followed by a march to Winthrop and more speeches outside the Vice-Chancellery.

NUS NATIONAL WEEK OF ACTION / UWA NATIONAL DAY OF ACTION (COMPLETED)

The 2021 NUS National Week of Action was scheduled for Aug 11-18, with our own campus National Day of Action scheduled for Aug 11. Our NDA will see us display a massive banner over the Reid Balcony/overpass.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST CUTS (ON-GOING)

The Education Council's official campaign against the cuts and UWA's restructuring. This campaign will consist of numerous EAN initiatives (protest/forums/etc – read above) to ensure the student fightback maintains its momentum throughout the semester.

SEMESTER TWO EXAMINATION STRATEGY (ON-GOING)

The Assessment Working Party has resumed meetings to discuss the strategy for Semester 2 examinations. I have raised feedback from Semester 1 with the working party, which has been taken into consideration. Alternatives to ProctorU are being explored, alongside exam delivery modes that better ensure academic integrity. Student representatives have also raised exam and timetable concerns to SCC, which will be directed to this working party.

SPGS AND BASE FUNDING (COMPLETED)

Semester 2 SPG applications have been reviewed and funds have been allocated.

2021 ASSESSMENT POLICY GUIDE (ON-GOING)

Majority of the emails I have received from students have been related to assessment concerns. The currently available assessment policy will be updated and made available so that students have greater awareness of common policies and their rights. This project has been delayed due to my focus on the EAN campaign.

24/7 FEEDBACK PORTAL (COMPLETED)

A project of the Education Council was to implement an anonymous feedback portal which was open 24/7 for students to readily provide their perspective. The purpose of this is so that if any improvements/changes were made, it would positively affect their current study experience rather than after they have completed the unit. However, I have been notified by Emily Brink that a similar system was actually implemented late last year. Considering nor I, any of the student representatives, or general students were aware about this actually existing, I met with David Sadler to discuss how to better promote this resource. He was unfamiliar with the features/purpose of this feedback system and will be investigating further. Should this feedback portal be successful, class representatives may also not be necessary in future. The report I submitted to Academic Board was noted, with no further discussion.

UWA STUDY SUCCESS (ON-GOING)

A meeting with Glynis Jones and Merrilee Albatis identified that numerous resources are available to support students with academic misconduct and integrity but are not completely accessible. We will be exploring the concept of a central resource hub (already uploaded on LMS) and how it could be expanded. We will also be working alongside Student Assist. I have sent a follow-up email to Merrilee as a meeting has not yet been organised. No current update.

YOUNG LEADERS COUNCIL (ON-GOING)

Second session was postponed to June 16 and was successful. Unfortunately, I was unable to assist as the Social Sciences protest was on the same day. No current update.

ACCESS X EDUCATION COUNCIL: SPECIAL CONSIDERATION ACCESSIBILITY (ON-GOING)

William, Lucinda and I had a meeting to discuss the inaccessibility of special consideration for students within the access community. More in-depth discussion will be had at a future meeting with relevant consultation and methods of addressing these issues will be investigated, such as writing up a proposal to present at Academic Board. Stuart Purdie had provided me with some insight into the medical student perspective regarding the special consideration process, which I have forwarded to the Access Co-Officers for further consideration. No current update.

ROYAL COMMISSION INTO DISABILITIES (ON-GOING)

A project overseen by the Access Department, with other departments and sub-councils supporting the initiative. The Access Department will be organising a UWA-based submission to the Royal Commission, which will be modelled to last year's NUS submission. Access will be providing us with graphics that accompany the campaign to distribute on our platforms – these infographics will detail the importance of having access to higher education and the barriers students with lived experiences face. Alongside this, a survey and anonymous form will be created for students to highlight issues within the university that needs to be addressed and improved. No current update.

CAREERS HANDBOOK (ON-GOING)

I will be meeting with the Careers and Employability Centre to explore what resources they currently have and how frequently accessed they are by students. We can investigate the necessity for a 'rebranding' or creation of a more succinct resource/handbook that details all the essential information students should know in regard to professionalism and employability (resumes/interviews/experiences/etc). The meeting has been postponed as the project is not currently of high priority.

PRIDE DEPARTMENT X EDUCATION COUNCIL – FACSOC QUEER REP PLATFORM (COMPLETED)

Avery Wright had organised a meeting with me to discuss Pride's idea of forming a platform/an informal collective of FacSoc queer representatives. The purpose of this platform is for the reps to discuss their FacSoc's projects so that support/collaborations could be sought from other FacSocs. The Education Council has provided Pride a list of the representatives and the Facebook platform has been created – the project is solely overseen by the Pride Department.

SEMESTER 1 CLASS REPRESENTATIVES (COMPLETED)

After a few delays, the Semester 1 2021 class representatives have been finalised. We received over a hundred applications from interested students across a multitude of undergraduate units – there were several expressions of interest from postgraduate students too, so expanding the class representative system into the postgraduate space will be something the Education Council explores with consultation from PSA. The representatives have been emailed a handbook, with the purpose of assisting them with their role, added into a Facebook group, and connected with their relevant Faculty Society(ies).

CLASS REPRESENTATIVE HANDBOOK (COMPLETED)

The content in the 'How to be an effective representative' handbook, created by the 2019 Education Council President Lincoln Aspinall, was updated accordingly and reformatted to be more attractive. This handbook was distributed amongst all the class representatives with the intention of providing them a deeper insight into their role so that they are able to carry out their duties and responsibilities appropriately. Faculty Societies also have access to this handbook so that they are aware of what information was provided to the representatives.

EDUCATION COUNCIL X FACULTY SOCIETY EAN VIDEO (COMPLETED)

The opportunity to feature in this campaign video was extended to all Faculty Society Presidents and Education Vice- Presidents. Sections of the script were delegated to each representative and they were required to email me a video. The finalised video was published on the UWA Education Action Network Facebook page and subsequently shared by related pages (UWA Student Fightback, NUS, Faculty Societies, etc) with the purpose of advertising the protest and reminding students that it was happening in the next few days. It would have been more ideal to have had the video completed and published at least a week and a half before the demonstration, but we made the most of the circumstances and still got the word out.

DEFEND OUR EDUCATION DEMONSTRATION (COMPLETED)

Project overseen by Nicole Mcewen, the EAN Coordinator. Aside from the relocation due to the O-Day set up process on Reid Lawn, the protest ran smoothly and attracted approximately 20 people. Nicole chaired the protest whilst Chris Hall (2021 NUS Education Officer), Esa Chrulaw (2021 OGC), and I gave speeches. We marched from Reid Lawn to Winthrop Hall and concluded the proceedings there. Overall, the event may have seen more attendees if its promotion began earlier, but the reason this was not possible was due to the fact that the EMP had not been submitted until late – hence the lack of on-campus advertisement and last-minute online push. Despite this, all class representatives, unit coordinators and Faculty Societies were alerted about the event to ensure it got maximum exposure.

SEMESTER 1 BASE FUNDING (COMPLETED)

Project overseen by John Oh, the Education Council Treasurer. Base funding had been finalised and forwarded to Guild Finance for allocation.

SEMESTER 1 SPECIAL PROJECT GRANTS (COMPLETED)

Project overseen by John Oh with my consultation. We received more SPG applications than this time last year, a testament to the revitalisation of campus culture which is exciting to see. Unsurprisingly it was a strenuous process made more difficult by the fact that this semester's funding pool remained consistent whilst the number of grants increased. Funding amounts have been finalised, forwarded to Guild Finance, and allocated.

PROCTORU EXAMS (COMPLETED)

I have been attending meetings with the Final Assessment Continuity Implementation Group where a new exam format/platform called ProctorU has been explored. This is a new platform that has been integrated with ExamSoft's software. ProctorU essentially mirrors Exemplify's functions but with a more sophisticated interface and improved invigilation (professionally trained live proctors), creating a comprehensive remote integrity solution. This will ensure that offshore students or students sitting LMS exams are appropriately invigilated so that academic misconduct does not occur. The use of ProctorU is limited (students must satisfy specific requirements, i.e. being offshore, unable to access campus) and may even be part of a requirement for a professional accreditation. Feedback has been gathered and the Assessment Working Party for Semester Two has been formed.

UWA LEARNING AND TEACHING AWARDS SELECTION (COMPLETED)

I was on the Learning and Teaching Awards Selection Committee and reviewed citations submitted by multiple nominated academic staff members across various schools. I was required to evaluate submissions against a rubric and forward feedback to the rest of the committee so that a decision could be made. It was amazing to gain an insight into the passion several of our educators had for teaching and all the work that was being done across the schools.

2021 NATIONAL UNION OF STUDENTS EDUCATION CONFERENCE – 2021 NUS EDCON (COMPLETED)

I attended the annual NUS EdCon which ran from July 12-13 on Zoom. Curtin Guild organised the WA Hub on their campus for student representatives and interested students to attend. All the workshops and panels that I attended were extremely beneficial and useful for upskilling myself as a student leader. We also had a state breakout session where we discussed and workshopped EAN initiatives, which was a fantastic conversation.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST CUTS // PRESS RELEASE STATEMENT RE: OPPOSITION TO SCHOOL OF MOLECULAR SCIENCES RESTRUCTURE (COMPLETED)

In light of the recent announcement surrounding the restructuring of the School of Molecular Sciences, I wrote a press release statement outlining the situation and the Guild's opposition to the changes. It has been published on the Guild social media platforms and shared by the representatives.

SENATE PROTEST (COMPLETED)

Aug 23. Held outside Winthrop where the Senate meeting took place. This was a collaborative effort with the UWA NTEU Branch involving ~200 NTEU members and students. The protest involved speeches by affected staff and students, and protestors inside the Chancellery had the opportunity to directly speak to Amit Chakma. Unfortunately, we didn't receive the 400-attendee turnout that we hoped for to visualize how many staff were set to lose their jobs, but the attendance was significant enough to be a successful protest.

GUILD INSURANCE INFOGRAPHIC (COMPLETED)

FacSocs were informed of the outcome of the insurance issue at this month's Ed Council. Infographics have been relayed.

SPECIAL ACADEMIC BOARD MEETING PETITION (COMPLETED)

Petition was created and circulated by Dr Marco Rizzi, a senior lecturer within the UWA Law School, calling for a Special Academic Board Meeting to discuss the Social Sciences restructure specifically. The petition gained all required signatories, including those of all student representatives that sit on the board. The special Academic Board meeting was called for August 17th.

UWA NATIONAL DAY OF ACTION – REID BALCONY BANNER DROP (COMPLETED)

Aug 11. Our own campus Day of Action to celebrate the NUS National Week of Action. Our day of action involved dropping two banners over the Reid Library Balcony and overpass to promote the Senate protest and raise awareness of the restructures and the EAN campaign.

Subcommittee events are still ticking over as always and the collaboration of the Say No To Scarborough campaign with 350 has been really great.

Committee wise it has been harder to have any meetings as peoples schedules are getting busier and busier. We have a little bit of budget left which has been preallocated to FFUWA for a Divestment event.

SUMMARY

September was another busy month for ISD. The team has worked tirelessly to churn out events and infographics. The education team ran their first face to face Quiz night this month. The turnout was great and some facsocs attended the quiz night too. The welfare team has been working hard to raise funds for Relay for life. The social team are currently planning 2 more big events for international students on campus. Our liaison team is currently planning for their end of semester event which is expected to be big. All in all, I am very proud of my team this month and I look forward to another busy month of October for ISD.

SUMMARY

August has been a good month for MASA and for me as Deputy chair doing up all the rules for the departments that I had met and worked on. MASA is looking to be in good shape to end the year off and also have a committee in place for 2022 which is amazing considering the track record we have had of almost no handovers. I am very proud of the committee for stepping up and doing their best in this time.

PROJECT UPDATE

RO Training and Department Elections

Began discussion around the timeline and when we can do training for staff

Welfare Department Rules

Discussed changes with the Welfare Officer, Amitabh and have amended the rules accordingly. I have tabled them for governance committee to approve and Guild Council the following day. They were due to be passed last week but Governance committee meeting was shifted, hence the late approval.

Residential Student's Department Rules

Discussed changes with the RSD President, Vaishnavi and have amended the rules accordingly to the advice given and formatting with Guild regulations. I have tabled them for governance committee to approve and Guild Council the following day. They were due to be passed last week but Governance committee meeting was shifted, hence the late approval.

Pride Department Rules

Discussed changes with the Pride Officer, Avery and have amended the rules accordingly to the advice given. I have tabled them for governance committee and asked for them to be present to join in the conversation as the main stakeholder. I hope these pass there and in Guild Council. Again, they were due to be passed last week but Governance committee meeting was shifted, hence the late approval.

Ethnocultural Department Rules

Discussed changes with the Ethnocultural Co-Officer, Ridhima and have amended the rules accordingly. I have tabled them for governance committee to approve and Guild Council the following day.

MASA Department Rules

Discussed changes with the committee and looked through any previous templates and drafted them accordingly. I have tabled them for governance committee to approve and Guild Council the following day.

Sports Department Rules

Discussed changes with the Sports Officer, Thomas and have amended the rules accordingly. I have tabled them for governance committee to approve and Guild Council the following day.

Alumni Engagement Committee Constitution

Updated the Constitution's formatting to reflect the new format applied to all committee constitutions.

Updated and catalogued all Committee Constitutions

Compiled and ensured all Guild Committee Constitutions were catalogued with the Guild Administrative staff to ensure they can be found easily and everyone can have access especially during the yearly Handover.

MASA AGM

Planning in progress as members have expressed their desire to join the team next year. Looks like we will have a handover and succession after a few years. Good growth for MASA.

MASA X PSA Mucky Duck Bush Dance Event

Was a fantastic event for parents and children to join in on and all who attended had a lot of fun. The collaboration is definitely working well and will look to keep it going to engage both Mature age students and Post graduate students.

SUMMARY

Chocka block month. Lots of meetings. Great support displayed from office bearers and staff. Promising developments across several key issues for students. Elections were disruptive as usual. I lost my diary later which was extremely problematic since I use it to record upcoming meetings etc.

MEETINGS ATTENDED

Date	Meeting	Purpose
	Meeting with Emma and Floretta	Great meeting. We discussed safety on campus and how we could integrate SafeZone software into the current security architecture to improve reporting and emergency services. It is scheduled for 2022.
	Meeting with Will Norrish	OGC catchup meeting. Discussed current projects and plans moving forward.
	Meeting with Abdul Rahman	Good meeting. Discussed issues concerning work rights for international students and how we can better promote this information to prevent misinformation and uphold protection.
	Meeting with City of Perth	Fantastic meeting. Discussed scope for partnership and sponsorship opportunities between both organisations.

Graduation Gown Assistance Program

This project aims to support students from low-ses background or those experiencing unforeseen financial emergencies. The grant which is provided based on strict eligibility criteria will cover the unavoidable rental costs associated with graduation ceremonies, thereby ensuring students can celebrate and observe an important rite of passage.

UDUB Radio

This project is hard yakka. Although it is still ongoing it's been put on the backburner as I have been flat-out with work, postgrad, and other commitments. It requires significant resources and time which is finite now. I plan on getting the ball rolling again and appreciate the support and guidance shown from other staff and students.

City of Perth x UWA Student Guild Engagement

Still in nascent phase. Baby steps. Much of the engagements has been mostly rhetorical and nothing concrete has yet been established. As per our last meeting, the City is well inclined to sponsor events that will positively impact local businesses. Conversely, additional funding will give us more leeway to run events without costing a fortune. Great.

Research Week

Research Week was an opportunity for students to attend a physical conference. To provide a platform for students to communicate research to a wider audience, and form student connections outside of their respective schools. Provide students an opportunity to network with industry. Provide Higher Degree by Research students with professional development opportunities. Spanning over three locations, there were a total of 59 presented from a variety of schools at the University with a clear dominance from Science students. The PSA recognised six students for their outstanding work with awards and prizes. The Research Week Sundowner provided students an opportunity to network with industry and university representatives in a casual setting.

PSA Grants and Awards

The PSA have opened for a second round of Grants and Awards for the second semester. We have included the small grants in this round to increase diversity and support the PSA can provide for postgraduate students.

Molecular Science Restructure

Our Research Vice President has been keeping a very close eye on the restructure and have been working closely with student representatives from the school of molecular science to ensure that they are adequately represented. It is pleasing to see that through advocacy, students are now part of the University communication strategy hosting a forum to announce changes to students and allow them to voice their concerns.

Compulsory Lectures for Dental School

The Dental School have implemented compulsory lectures for all dental students as a part of the professionalism component of their studies. Our Health and Medical Science Representative and the University Dental Students' Society are working closely to find clarify around the requirement and thresholds for breaching professionalism with non-lecture attendance.

After Hours Park for Students at QEII

At the QEII campus, staff bays are swipe card access. Our Health and Medical Science Representative has advocated for the students to be granted access to those carparks afterhours and on weekends enabling students to drive into university and utilise the library facilities.

PSA Ball

The PSA Ball planning continues. Hosted at the University Club, this year we have upgraded our gala to a ball, which entails a sit down main and a buffet dessert bar. In addition, there will be live performances, a photographer, a photo booth, and music all night long. Tickets are selling fast.

Mucky Duck Bush Dance

The Mucky Duck Bush Dance is a new initiative that was started this year. It is family friendly PSA event that will allow PSA students to relax and mingle with their children. We have hired the Mucky Duck Bush Band who will come and play music and get the crowd on their feet. There will also be a sausage sizzle and BYO alcohol.

PSA AGM

Through our Annual General Meeting, we have passed the new PSA Rules and PSA Election Rules that add a bit more clarify around campaigning to be more modernised.

PSA Elections

Currently working with Guild staff to organise the new round of PSA Elections for the incoming committee.

SUMMARY

What a month!

This month I was invited to speak at a “Politics in the Pub” event for the Fremantle Network regarding the changes to higher education and how they impact me as a student, but also as a Student Representative of the Guild. It was a privilege to speak amongst so many notable speakers and wonderful to be involved to represent the students and our union.

This month, the SOCPAC regulation updates were completed and passed through the Governance Committee! So excited that they have been passed, and eagerly awaiting Guild Council this month to pass them again. Consulted with Clubs at the September SOCPAC and things going well. Glad the end of this project is in sight, a worthwhile but long labor of love for all future SOC Presidents.

April and I attended a meeting with the NTEU President to begin organising the “Staff Casualisation Fete” which aims to be an incredibly low barrier event to raise awareness of the impacts of staff casualisation at UWA. Incredibly proud to be part to this organising committee and to be supporting all of the staff who allow us to have such a high quality of education at this university.

This month I met with Warren Kerr, a member of the UWA Senate to discuss the potential for “Convocation Clubs” at UWA. We identified that students often lose their sense of connection to UWA once they graduate, as they can no longer have the same involvement with clubs and societies like what they did as a student. These convocation clubs – which aim to mirror existing guild clubs, will provide pillars of stability for future ex students as they enter the workforce, and provide a sense of comfort and connection to UWA for those who have long graduated. It has been an incredible privilege working with Warren to set this project up, and I am looking forward to seeing how these clubs take off in the future.

The environment grants are going to be allocated this month! So exciting to see these grants going to support clubs who are actively trying to find a greener more sustainable option for their club events!

Overall, a busy, but successful month!

PROJECT UPDATE

Buy Sell Swap Network

- Softlaunched in the August SOCPAC, minimal engagement sofar, but likely to become more useful near the end of semester

Club Carnival

- Both semesters events completed, to huge success! Thanks to everyone who worked on the project!

PROSH

- Completed!

Club Colaborative Zone Revitaliation

- 2022 plans.

Club Status Audit

- Continuing, on track to be completed by the elections for SOCPAC next month.

Convocation clubs

- After discussion with Warren Kerr at the Senate x UWA Guild Dinner, it was identified that Convocation was lacking engagement with alumni that the clubs have. Convocation Clubs aim to provide the connection to university and other students that is lost once people graduate, and will be run through the convocation portfolio of the university. Really enjoying this project and looking forward to it taking place next year/ over the summer.

Environment Grants

- Being allocated this month! Thanks to all the clubs who applied, and all those behind the scenes who worked on this project!

End of semester Windup

- Planned for the last socpac meeting date of the year (nov). Looking forward to this event coming together, more information to come!

Grants

- Environment grants being allocated this month.
- Semester grants will be processed at the end of this term.

Inclusivity award

- I have received all of the nominations, and the voting form will be circulated amongst students this week! Looking forward to seeing the results.

ODAY

- Completed

OFEST

- Completed

Regulations update

- To pass guild council this coming month. Passed through Governance and discussed at the September SOCPAC meeting. Very happy to see this project near competition.

Student Leadership Training

- In discussions with Student Services and Chloe Bull to revitalise this training delivery, to ensure we are providing the best possible service for club executives.

Sexual Assault response policy

- This is an ongoing project

Skills network

- Softlaunch in the facebook group for clubs, but this project in its full form will not be completed this year due to budget restrictions.

Sundowners

- Thanks to all of the Guild Staff who worked so hard on this project. Looking forward to seeing how sundowners can be run next year.

Tenancy

- Busy bees planned for the rest of this semester, has been exciting to see clubs using the space for their events and respecting the guild property.

Trancript recognition project

- This project has now mophed into the “co curricular working group” which is a network of “stakeholders” from across the university who are interested in having better recognition for students who are in positions of leadership on their transcripts. This project is quite large and may transend my presidency, however I am looking forward to this project coming to fruition.

SUMMARY

It was a big semester for the department, with all of our initiatives for the semester going into full swing. The Women and Non-Binary Gym Series has finished and we are extremely pleased with how it went. Attendees of the event were very happy with how it was run, and UWA Sport were very happy with the events success. The event also helped demonstrate the effectiveness of collaborations between the Sports Department and UWA Sport. The Wear it Purple Colour Blast event is locked in, and will be run on International Pronouns Day. We are looking forward to helping run the event! We have also started running e-sports again, hosting 3 events with UWAnime and E-Sports Club.

PROJECT UPDATE

Women and Non-Binary Gym Series

The event has reached its conclusion and it was a massive success. Feedback from attendees and UWA Sport was overwhelmingly positive and we look forward to expanding this program and running it in the future. Shoutout to Jade Sauta for all her hard work in making this event such a success.

Wear it Purple Colour Blast Charity Event

The event is locked in for Wednesday in Week 12. I met with Antonia from Guild Volunteering to see if we can secure some assistance in running the event. We will be running the event on International Pronouns day, and the event will consist of several stations, each representing a different pronoun. We are very excited to work with Pride on this event, and are keen to see how it pans out.

India Week Cricket Match

We are continuing to have difficulties finding a date to run the event. Currently most fields are under maintenance to prepare for the summer cricket season and so are unavailable. We will most likely be running the event in November or December after exams.

E-Sports

We had a meeting with UWAnime and E-Sports Club, and now have locked in three dates for casual e-sports in weeks 7, 9 and 11 on Thursdays.

Inter-Faculty Sports

We are nearing the end of Inter-Faculty Sports, with just 3 weeks of sports remaining. Rhianna Figueiredo from the UWA Aquatics Centre reached out to me and floated the idea of having an aquatics splash day as our windup for Inter-Faculty Sports. I am speaking with the sports representatives to see what their thoughts are.
