 - (a) Ordinary Membership fees are subject to the approval of the University Senate; and
 - (b) Associate Membership fees must be approved by Guild Council.
- (2) Membership fees may be different for different classes of membership.
- (3) The Guild Executive may authorise the refund of a membership fee paid by an Associate Member.

Chapter 3 — Guild Governance

Part 1 — Guild By-Laws, Guild Stances, Guild Policies and Regulations

12 Guild Operational Policies

- (1) The operational policies of the Guild are made by Guild Council and must be prescribed in the Guild By-Laws.
- (2) The operational policies of the Guild do not lapse at the end of the Guild Year and remain in force until amended or rescinded by resolution of the Guild Council.

13 Guild By-Laws

- (1) The Guild Council must maintain the Guild By-Laws which contains all —
 - (a) Standing Orders of the Guild;
 - (b) Subsidiary Council's Rules;
 - (c) Guild Department Rules;
 - (d) Guild Committee constitutions;
 - (e) Guild policies (as opposed to Guild Stances which are maintained in a separate Register of Guild Stances); and
 - (f) any other rules governing the internal administration and operations of the Guild and which are approved by Guild Council.
- (2) The Guild By-Laws is subject to, and must not be inconsistent with the UWA Statute, these Regulations and the Guild Election Regulations.
- (3) The Guild By-Laws must be made publicly available on the Guild's official website.

14 Guild Stances

- (1) Subject to (3), Guild Stances are made by Guild Council and must be recorded in the 'Register of Guild Stances'.
- (2) Guild Stances must relate to the Guild's objects or powers as prescribed in Chapter 5 of the University of Western Australia Statute.
- (3) Where an issue is not covered by an existing Guild Stance, the Guild Executive may temporarily determine an interim Guild Stance, in which case —
 - (a) the interim Guild Stance remains in effect until it is considered by a meeting of the Guild Council, and the Guild Council must resolve to either ratify the Guild Stance or allow it to lapse; and
 - (b) lapsed interim Guild Stances will not be readopted by the Guild Executive, either in style or substance until the next Guild Year.
- (4) The 'Register of Guild Stances' must be made publicly available on the Guild's official website.
- (5) Guild Stances do not lapse at the end of the Guild Year and remain in force until amended or rescinded by resolution of the Guild Council.

15 Guild referendum

- (1) Subject to the approval of the Guild Council, a Referendum may be held where —
 - (a) approved by a general meeting of the Guild; or
 - (b) requested by written petition of at least 500 Ordinary Members, setting out a Referendum question, submitted to the Guild General Secretary.
- (2) If requested by written petition, the written petition must explicitly and clearly state that it is a petition to hold a Referendum.
- (3) Referendums may only be held once a calendar year in conjunction with the General Guild Elections and must be conducted in accordance with the relevant requirements of the Guild Election Regulations.
- (4) There is no limit to the number of referendums that can happen at a General Guild Election in any one year.
- (5) Subject to the Guild Election Regulations, the Guild Council determines all matters of detail in connection with any Referendum.
- (6) A Referendum is decided in the affirmative if 50 per cent of the valid votes cast plus one are in the affirmative.

16 Amendments to Guild Regulations

- (1) The Guild will endeavour to notify the University Secretary of any proposed amendments to these Regulations or the Guild Election Regulations prior to approval by Guild Council or a general meeting of the Guild for the purpose of ensuring proposed amendments are consistent with the Act, UWA Statute and By-laws.
- (2) Amendments to these Regulations or the Guild Election Regulations must be —
 - (a) endorsed by absolute majority of Guild Council; and
 - (b) where the amendment proposes to amend —
 - (i) the membership of Guild Council as prescribed in regulation 28;
 - (ii) the approval of Guild Policy Stances under regulation 14; or
 - (iii) this regulation 16;endorsed by a general meeting of the Guild or a Referendum under regulation 15 and the Guild Election Regulations; and
 - (c) where the amendment does not relate to the matters specified in (b), comply with the requirements of (3) below.
- (3) Where the proposed amendment does not relate to the matters specified in sub-regulation (2)(b) —
 - (a) the Guild Council's resolution must be published on the Guild's official website and included in an email to all Guild members;
 - (b) the notice under (a) must include advice that Ordinary Members of the Guild may have the resolution considered at a general meeting of the Guild if 15 Ordinary Members give notice to that effect within 14 days of the date of sending the all-member email;
 - (c) if no notice is received within 14 days in terms of (b), then the proposed amendments

- (i) are deemed to be endorsed by the Guild at the expiration of the 14 day period;
 - (ii) must then be submitted to the University Secretary for approval by the Senate; and
 - (iii) must be reported by the Guild President to the next general meeting of the Guild;
- (d) if 15 Ordinary Members of the Guild give the notice required by (b) within 14 days, then —
- (i) the resolution must be considered by a general meeting of the Guild, which may —
 - (A) confirm, amend or reject the proposed Guild Regulations; or
 - (B) require that it be submitted to a Referendum, which must be held at the next scheduled General Guild Election; and
 - (ii) if approved by a general meeting of the Guild under (A) or Referendum held under (B), must then be submitted to the University Secretary for ultimate approval by the Senate.
- (4) All proposed amendments to these Regulations or the Guild Election Regulations will only take effect once approved by the Senate in accordance with the Act.
- (5) The Senate may reject any proposed amendments to these Regulations or the Guild Election Regulations, in whole or in part.
- (6) Changes to the voting membership of Guild Council that are approved and passed in accordance with this regulation will take effect on 1 December following approval by Senate.

17 Amendments to the University of Western Australia Statute

- (1) The Guild may recommend to the Senate an amendment to Chapter 5 (Student Guild) of the University of Western Australia Statute, where the proposed amendment is approved by Guild Council or a general meeting of the Guild.
- (2) A recommendation under (1) must fully specify the nature of the proposed amendment but need not specify verbatim the text of the proposed amendment.

(The list of Guild Departments and Department Officers are published on the Guild's official website)

19 Election process

- (1) Office Bearers are elected annually as specified in regulation 18, Table 1.
- (2) Office Bearers who are elected through the General Guild Elections must be elected in accordance with the requirements of the Guild Election Regulations.
- (3) Other Officers of the Guild who are not required to be elected through the General Guild Elections must be elected in accordance with the procedures in the Guild Election Regulations, Schedule 2.

20 Eligibility

- (1) In accordance with the Act, in order to hold any elective office of the Guild, a person must be an Ordinary Member of the Guild.
- (2) A Student seeking election as a Guild Office Bearer must meet any eligibility requirements particular to that position, which are prescribed in these Regulations and —
 - (a) In the case of Students seeking election to positions elected through the General Guild Elections, the eligibility requirements are also to be found in the Guild Election Regulations; and
 - (b) In the case of Students seeking election as Department Officers, the eligibility requirements are also to be found in in the Department's Rules.
- (3) A Student cannot be elected to the position of Guild President, or Vice-President, or General Secretary or Chair of the Guild Council more than once. Accordingly, a Student who has been elected to any of those positions is not eligible to stand for election for that same position at any future time.

- (4) A Student cannot be elected as the President of a particular Subsidiary Council more than once.
- (5) In accordance with regulation 24(2), a member of Guild Council who resigns their position cannot stand for election to the same position in a subsequent Guild election.
- (6) A member of Guild Council who has had their position declared vacant under regulation 23(1) is not eligible for election as an Office Bearer for at least one year after their position was declared vacant.

21 Term of office

- (1) The term of office of all Officers of the Guild is from 1 December until 30 November of the following year.
- (2) Where the timetable for an Annual General Election has been extended past the last Teaching Day of Second Semester, in accordance with the Guild Election Regulations, Guild Council, on advice from the Managing Director and the Returning Officer, may temporarily extend the term of office for all Officers of the Guild for no longer than six months.

22 Student members of Senate

- (1) The two members of Senate who are elected by and from the Students pursuant to the Act section 8(1)(g) are those who are elected in the manner prescribed in the Guild Election Regulations to the offices of —
 - (a) Guild President; and
 - (b) President of the Postgraduate Students' Association.
- (2) The Senate members elected in accordance with (1) hold office on Senate for a one-year term from 1 December until 30 November of the following year.

23 Casual vacancies

- (1) Where an Officer Bearer is absent from three consecutive formal meetings of a body of which they are a member (including Guild Council, a Subsidiary Council, Guild Committee or Guild Department) without the prior written approval of that body, the body may declare the Office Bearer's position vacant.
- (2) A member whose position is declared vacant under (1) is not eligible to be a member of Guild Council for one year from the date their position is declared vacant.
- (3) A Guild Officer ceases to hold office and creates a casual vacancy where the member holding that position —
 - (a) resigns under regulation 24;
 - (b) is no longer eligible to hold the position;
 - (c) has their position declared vacant due to absence under (1);
 - (d) commits an offence under the Guild Election Regulations;
 - (e) is permanently incapacitated by mental or physical ill health; or
 - (f) dies.

- (4) Where a casual vacancy arises under (3), the vacancy is to be filled as follows:

TABLE 2. PROCESS OF FILLING CASUAL VACANCIES

- (e) the matter involves potential criminal conduct and should be referred to the Police; and
- (f) the reasons for the decision made under 87(2)(b) must be recorded and preserved as if regulation 111 applied to the decision.

88 Matters which must be referred to the University

- (1) The Guild must immediately notify the University (via the University's Integrity and Standards Unit) if it becomes aware of an allegation which may amount to —
 - (a) criminal conduct;
 - (b) misconduct under the University's Student Conduct & Discipline Regulations; or
 - (c) conduct that brings or is likely to bring the University into disrepute.

Note: This includes, but is not limited to, conduct that could amount to physical misconduct (including assault, bullying, harassment or stalking), sexual misconduct, abusive behaviour, misconduct or abusive behaviour that occurs wholly or partly online or via social media, damage to property, unauthorised taking or use of property, fraud, causing a health or safety concern, interference or disruption with University's activities or functions and any other breach of the University's Code of Conduct & Ethics.
- (2) The Guild may refer any matter to the University as it deems appropriate.
- (3) Where a matter is referred to the University under this regulation 88:
 - (a) the University will determine whether it will investigate and take action under the Student Conduct & Discipline Regulations; and
 - (b) for the avoidance of doubt, the matter may also be referred to the Guild Misconduct Tribunal to be dealt with under these Regulations.

89 Conflicts of interest

- (1) Where a Guild Officer who is referred to in this Chapter is under investigation, or is considered to have an actual, perceived or potential conflict of interest or is unable to complete the duties required of them under these provisions, the Managing Director of the Guild is to appoint another appropriate person to complete their duties.
- (2) Where the Managing Director of the Guild is the subject of a report under regulation 87 or an investigation under this Chapter, or is considered to have an actual, perceived or potential conflict of interest or is unable to complete the duties required of them under these provisions, the Associate Director, Human Resources is to complete their duties.

90 Notices

Written notices relating to disciplinary investigations, hearings or appeals under this Chapter must be served in accordance with regulation 109.

Part 2 — Guild Misconduct Tribunal

91 Role and composition of the Guild Misconduct Tribunal

- (1) The role of the Guild Misconduct Tribunal is to —
 - (a) investigate allegations of Guild Misconduct;
 - (b) determine whether an allegation of Guild Misconduct has been proven on a balance of probabilities; and
 - (c) if it determines that Guild Misconduct has been proven under (b), determine the penalty that should be imposed (if any) under these Regulations.
- (2) The Guild Misconduct Tribunal comprises —
 - (a) the Associate Director, Human Resources (as Chair);
 - (b) the Chair of the Guild Council;
 - (c) the Managing Director of the Guild; and
 - (d) such other members appointed by the Associate Director, Human Resources as required from time to time, who may be a Guild Councillor, a University employee or Student, other than the Guild President and the General Secretary.
- (3) The Guild Misconduct Tribunal may determine its own procedures consistent with the principles of fairness and natural justice, Guild Policy and these Regulations.
- (4) The deliberations and decisions of the Guild Misconduct Tribunal will be confidential and the Guild Misconduct Tribunal may determine that the submission of evidence may be confidential.
- (5) Upon receipt of a notice under regulation 92, and pending its final decision under regulation 97, the Guild Misconduct Tribunal may temporarily exclude the person alleged to have committed Guild Misconduct from all or part of the buildings occupied by the Guild if it considers, acting reasonably, that the allegation is of a serious nature and the exclusion is reasonably necessary for the protection of property or the health and safety of people.

92 Notice to the Guild Misconduct Tribunal

Where the Guild President determines under regulation 87 to refer the matter to the Guild Misconduct Tribunal, the General Secretary must notify the Associate Director, Human Resources and the Managing Director of the Guild, by setting out the details of the report and all evidence relating to the report made under regulation 87.

93 Notice of allegations and opportunity to respond

- (1) If the Guild Misconduct Tribunal determines it is not required to investigate the matter the subject of the report, based upon reasons set out in regulation 87(2)(b)(i) or (ii), the Guild Misconduct Tribunal must notify the General Secretary of this decision.
- (2) If the Guild Misconduct Tribunal determines it has jurisdiction to investigate the matter the subject of the report, it must serve a written notice on the Member or Guild Officer alleged to have committed Guild Misconduct (hereafter referred to as the respondent). The Initial Notice must —
 - (a) specify the alleged Guild Misconduct, including reference to any particular part of these Regulations or the Guild By-Laws alleged to have been contravened;
 - (b) inform the respondent that the Guild Misconduct Tribunal, on behalf of the Guild, is conducting an investigation;

- (c) enclose a copy of this Chapter of the Regulations;
 - (d) enclose or provide a comprehensive summary of all evidence or documentation relevant to the alleged Guild Misconduct in the possession, custody or control of the Guild;
 - (e) inform the respondent of their right to respond to the allegation and provide a written response to the Guild in accordance with 93(3) below;
 - (f) inform the respondent that a hearing before the Guild Misconduct Tribunal will be held, which may include the notice of hearing required under regulation 95(2).
- (3) The respondent may provide a written response to the allegation and Initial Notice in writing to the Guild Misconduct Tribunal within five University Working Days from the date of receipt of the Initial Notice.
- (4) If the respondent admits to all of the allegations contained in the Initial Notice, regulation 94 will not apply and the Guild Misconduct Tribunal may impose a penalty as set out in these Regulations, or not, as it sees fit.

94 Investigation report

- (1) The Guild Misconduct Tribunal may investigate the allegations contained in the Initial Notice, and upon concluding its investigation, it must provide to the respondent an Investigation Report which must include —
- (a) the particulars of the alleged Guild Misconduct;
 - (b) all relevant evidence;
 - (c) a copy of the Initial Notice;
 - (d) a copy of or a detailed summary of any other notices provided to the respondent; and
 - (e) a copy of any response received by the respondent under regulation 93(3).

95 Guild Misconduct Hearing

- (1) A hearing before the Guild Misconduct Tribunal (Misconduct Hearing) must be held no sooner than 10 University Working Days and no later than 20 University Working Days after the respondent receives the Investigation Report.
- (2) The respondent must be provided with at least 10 University Working Days written notice of a Misconduct Hearing, which must include —
- (a) the date, time and place of the hearing; and
 - (b) the respondent's right to attend with a support person pursuant to (10);
 - (c) the respondent's right to request in writing to the Guild Misconduct Tribunal a change to the date or time of the hearing on reasonable grounds, subject to the approval of the Guild Misconduct Tribunal; and
 - (d) notice that the hearing may proceed in the absence of the respondent where they have been provided the required notice in accordance with these Regulations.
- (3) The Guild Misconduct Tribunal may request the attendance at the Misconduct Hearing of such persons it deems necessary by providing them with written notice at least 10 University Working Days prior to the Misconduct Hearing.
- (4) The Guild Misconduct Tribunal may approve a written request from a respondent to change the date or time of the hearing on reasonable grounds.

- (5) Where a respondent fails to attend the Misconduct Hearing, the hearing may proceed in their absence provided the respondent was provided notice in accordance with (2) above.
- (6) The Guild Misconduct Tribunal is not bound by the rules of evidence, may inform itself as it sees fit and determine its own procedure, within the bounds of Guild Policy, these Regulations and the principles of natural justice.
- (7) The Guild Misconduct Tribunal may admit evidence from persons who are not Members.
- (8) The Guild Misconduct Tribunal may admit evidence by declaration in the form provided by regulation 110.
- (9) The Misconduct Hearing is, subject to (7), not open to other Members or the public.
- (10) All persons required to appear at a Misconduct Hearing may be accompanied by a support person who must not be —
 - (a) a person alleged to have been involved in or associated with the matter of the subject of the allegation; or
 - (b) a qualified legal practitioner unless permitted by the Chair of the Guild Misconduct Tribunal.

96 Onus and standard of proof

- (1) Where there is an allegation of Guild Misconduct, either before the Guild Misconduct Tribunal or on appeal —
 - (a) the Guild Misconduct Tribunal or Guild Council (as applicable) bears the onus of proof; and
 - (b) the standard of proof is on the balance of probabilities.

97 Guild Misconduct Tribunal's decision

- (1) The Guild Misconduct Tribunal can either —
 - (a) dismiss the allegation;
 - (b) uphold the allegation, but impose no penalty;
 - (c) uphold the allegation, and impose a penalty; or
 - (d) adjourn (and reconvene within a reasonable time) the hearing to allow for further time to investigate and acquire information in relation to the allegation.
- (2) Within 10 University Working Days of the conclusion of the Misconduct Hearing, the Guild Misconduct Tribunal must provide the respondent(s) with a written report of its decision and its reasons, which must include —
 - (a) its decision whether the alleged Guild Misconduct has been substantiated in accordance with the onus and burden of proof required by regulation 96;
 - (b) where the Guild Misconduct Tribunal has determined that Guild Misconduct has been substantiated, any penalty to be imposed under regulation 98 and its reasons for imposing such penalty;
 - (c) a summary of the evidence presented to the Guild Misconduct Tribunal;
 - (d) a summary of oral evidence presented to the Guild Misconduct Tribunal; and
 - (e) the respondent(s) right to appeal and a copy of Part 3 (Appeals) of this Chapter.

- (3) The Guild Misconduct Tribunal must provide to the Guild Council a written summary of the outcome of each Misconduct Hearing and the penalty imposed (if any).

98 Penalties

- (1) The Guild Misconduct Tribunal (or Guild Council in determining an appeal) may impose one or more of the following penalties upon a finding of Guild Misconduct:
- (a) a requirement to provide a formal written apology to any person;
 - (b) a formal warning;
 - (c) a fine not exceeding $200 payable to the Guild;
 - (d) suspension or removal of a Guild Officer, including as an officer of a Student Society, from holding their position within the Guild for a period of time as determined by the Guild Misconduct Tribunal;
 - (e) disqualification of a Guild Officer, including as an officer of a Student Society, from holding their position within the Guild for a period of time as determined by the Guild Misconduct Tribunal;
 - (f) exclusion from all or part of the buildings occupied by the Guild for a period of time as determined by the Guild Misconduct Tribunal;
 - (g) suspension of a Member's rights or privileges, for a period of time as determined by the Guild Misconduct Tribunal;
 - (h) for individuals who are an Associate Member or Honorary Life Member, a recommendation to Guild Council that it suspend or cancel an individual's Guild membership;
 - (i) where the matter relates to a Student Society, referral to the Student Society to be dealt with under its constitution, or a recommendation to Guild Council that it suspend, disaffiliate or deregister a Student Society; or
- (2) In relation to Guild Misconduct that occurred in relation to General Guild Elections:
- (a) a ban on campaigning at the polling booths for a period or periods of time determined by the Guild Misconduct Tribunal; or
 - (b) a ban on campaigning generally for a period or periods of time determined by the Guild Misconduct Tribunal.
- (3) A penalty for Guild Misconduct may be imposed upon —
- (a) an individual;
 - (b) a group of individuals, including a group of individuals that are part of a Student Society that was found to have committed the Guild Misconduct, even if the individuals themselves cannot be identified; or
 - (c) a Student Society.
- (4) The Guild Misconduct Tribunal (or Guild Council on appeal) must, when imposing a penalty for Guild Misconduct, take into account —
- (a) the nature, frequency and seriousness of the Guild Misconduct;
 - (b) previous penalties imposed for similar Guild Misconduct;
 - (c) the timing of any admission; and
 - (d) any relevant mitigating circumstances.

Part 3 — Appeals

99 Grounds for appeal

- (1) The respondent or a person affected by the alleged Guild Misconduct may appeal a decision of the Guild Misconduct Tribunal.
- (2) An appeal of a decision of the Guild Misconduct Tribunal will be determined by the Guild Council.
- (3) An appeal of a decision of the Guild Misconduct Tribunal to the Guild Council must be based on one or more of the following grounds:
 - (a) there is new information that could not reasonably have been provided at the time of the original decision, and that would likely have affected the decision or any penalty imposed;
 - (b) the Guild Misconduct Tribunal —
 - (i) took into account a matter which should not have been taken into account; or
 - (ii) failed to take account or give sufficient weight to circumstances or facts which ought to have been taken into account;
 - (c) the penalty imposed was excessive; or
 - (d) the Guild Misconduct Tribunal did not comply with the prescribed process (which may include that the respondent has not received a fair hearing in all the circumstances).
- (4) For the avoidance of doubt, any penalty imposed by the Guild Misconduct Tribunal will apply even if a decision is the subject of the appeal, unless overturned on appeal.

100 Notice of appeal

- (1) A person who wishes to appeal a decision of the Guild Misconduct Tribunal (hereafter referred to as the Appellant) must lodge a notice of appeal with the Guild President within seven University Working Days of the Guild Misconduct Tribunal's decision.
- (2) The notice of appeal must —
 - (a) be in writing;
 - (b) clearly state the ground or grounds for appeal;
 - (c) summarise the basis for each ground or grounds;
 - (d) attach the notice of the original decision (in the case of the respondent); and
 - (e) include any relevant material on which the Appellant wishes to rely.

101 Consideration of notice of appeal

- (1) Upon receipt of a notice of appeal submitted in accordance with regulation 100, the Guild President, in consultation with the Managing Director of the Guild must determine whether
 - (a) the notice of appeal lacks merit, in which case they must dismiss the appeal without hearing and give notice of the decision; or
 - (b) the notice of appeal has merit and for the Guild Council to hear the appeal in accordance with this Part 3.

- (2) The reasons for the decision made under 101(1) must be recorded and preserved as if regulation 111 applied to the decision.

102 Appeal hearing

- (1) The hearing of the appeal before the Guild Council must be held no sooner than 10 University Working Days and no later than 30 University Working Days after the Guild President has received a notice of appeal (Appeal Hearing).
- (2) The Appellant and the respondent must be provided with at least 10 University Working Days written notice of the Appeal Hearing, which must include —
 - (a) the date, time and place of the hearing; and
 - (b) the Appellant and respondent's right to attend with a support person pursuant to (8);
 - (c) the Appellant and respondent's right to request in writing to the General Secretary (on behalf of the Guild Council) a change to the date or time of the hearing on reasonable grounds, subject to the approval of the Guild President; and
 - (d) that the hearing may proceed in the absence of the respondent where they have been provided the required notice in accordance with these Regulations.
- (3) The Guild President may approve a written request from an Appellant to the General Secretary to change the date or time of the hearing on reasonable grounds.
- (4) The Guild Council may request the attendance at the Appeal Hearing of such persons it deems necessary by providing them with written notice at least 10 University Working Days prior to the hearing.
- (5) Where an Appellant fails to attend the Appeal Hearing, the hearing may proceed in their absence provided the Appellant was provided notice in accordance with (2) above.
- (6) The Appeal Hearing is, subject to (4), not open to other Members or the public.
- (7) The Appeal Hearing is an appeal by way of rehearing. The Guild Council may only consider new evidence where the evidence was not reasonably available at the time of the original Misconduct Hearing and it would likely have affected the decision or any penalty imposed.
- (8) All persons required to appear at an Appeal Hearing may be accompanied by a support person who must not be —
 - (a) a person alleged to have been involved in or associated with the matter the subject of the allegation; or
 - (b) a qualified legal practitioner unless permitted by the Guild Council.

103 Appeal decision

- (1) At the conclusion of the Appeal Hearing, the Guild Council may either —
 - (a) dismiss the appeal;
 - (b) confirm or vary the decision of, or penalty imposed by, the Guild Misconduct Tribunal; or
 - (c) set aside the decision of, or penalty imposed by, the Guild Misconduct Tribunal and substitute a new decision and/or penalty.
- (2) Within 10 University Working Days of the conclusion of the Appeal Hearing, the Guild Council must provide the Appellant and respondent with a written report of its decision and reasons for the decision.

- (3) Subject to the Appellant and/or respondent's right to pursue the matter outside the Guild, the Guild Council's decision in determining the appeal is final.

Chapter 8 — Guild Employees

104 Employment by the Guild

- (1) Guild Council (or the Guild Executive where it is specifically authorised by Guild Council) may, on behalf of the Guild —
 - (a) create employee positions;
 - (b) enter into employment agreements;
